Requirements for assignments

- ✓ Double spaced, 12 point easy to read font, no larger than 1 inch margins
- ✓ Make sure all assignments are clearly labeled with your name and course title at the top right hand corner
- ✓ All assignments must be submitted using the turn-it-in link, if you are having difficulties with this link please notify me via email immediately before the assignment is due
- ✓ I highly advise always making a copy of your work
- ✓ Make sure to read ALL OF THE INSTRUCTIONS for a given assignment. You will lose a significant amount of points for failing to do this

Assignments

Observations: Through the course of the semester you will complete observations spanning the ages we will study (Birth-Middle Childhood). Each of these observations will be at least 2 pages long. If you expect to receive a grade higher than average (a C grade) your observations will be longer than this minimum. The exact details and format I expect you to follow for this assignment as well as examples can be found under “blackboard-assignments” I highly recommend reading through the format and assignment requirements completely before beginning the assignments. The format I expect needs to be followed exactly or you will lose points for the assignment.

Exams: There will be a total of 2 exams (midterm and final) worth 100 points each. Exams will be made up of multiple-choice questions related to the materials read in the chapter as well as any additional information I have directed you to read. These are very lengthy and difficult exams, make sure you are studying and reading through this semester or you will not be able finish them.

Chapter Assignments: Each week there will be a chapter assignment due based on the readings for that week. I will make the assignment available Monday by 8am. These must be completed and submitted by the end of the week, Sunday by 11:59pm. You can submit these up to one week-(7 days) after the due date each day late you will loose 5% (in two days you loose 10%, or one full letter grade) . After 7 days they will NOT be accepted, this is a firm statement. You will find these assignments in the folder for the week. Some assignments will be reflective in nature and only require your opinion or thoughts on a certain subject. Other assignments will be more in depth and require more research and “work” to finish completely. Whether the assignments require 15 min or an hour it is worth 15 points and I expect you to put equal thought and effort into the assignment regardless of the time commitment. Typically to receive the full 15 points I expect to see reference to reading for the week. Once again if the prompt for the assignment indicates it needs to be one full page to receive full credit it must be one full page.

Class Discussions: You will have 15 opportunities to participate in class discussions by utilizing the Discussion Board on blackboard. Each week there will be a discussion listed which corresponds to the chapter we are studying. To receive credit for this you must post three times, one original post answering the question I have given (worth 5pts) and two other posts responding to others (each worth 2pts). This must be completed by the end of the week, Sunday at 11:59 pm.

Class Policies and Procedures:

The statements below are taken directly from the Reedley College Catalog

Academic Dishonesty

Students at Reedley College are entitled to the best education that the college can make available to them, and they, their instructors, and their fellow students share the responsibility to ensure that this education is honestly attained. Because cheating, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities erode the integrity of the college, each student is expected to exert an entirely honest effort in all academic endeavors. Academic dishonesty in any form is a very serious offense and will incur serious consequences.

Cheating

Cheating is the act or attempted act of taking an examination or performing an assigned, evaluated task in a fraudulent or deceptive manner, such as having improper access to answers, in an attempt to gain an unearned academic advantage. Cheating may include, but is not limited to, copying from another's work, supplying one's work to another, giving or receiving copies of examinations without an instructor's permission, using or displaying notes or devices inappropriate to the conditions of the examination, allowing someone other than the officially enrolled student to represent the student, or failing to disclose research results completely.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a specific form of cheating: the use of another's words or ideas without identifying them as such or giving credit to the source. Plagiarism may include, but is not limited to, failing to provide complete citations and references for all work that draws on the ideas, words, or work of others, failing to identify the contributors to work done in collaboration, submitting duplicate work to be evaluated in different courses without the knowledge and consent of the instructors involved, or failing to observe computer security systems and software copyrights. Incidents of cheating and plagiarism may result in any of a variety of sanctions and penalties, which may range from a failing grade on the particular examination, paper, project, or assignment in question to a failing grade in the course, at the discretion of the instructor and depending on

Cheating/Plagiarism: Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated. A student will receive no credit for the assignment if in the opinion of the instructor the individual has cheated

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e., Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact me as soon as possible.

Changing Syllabus Statement: This course syllabus is equivalent to a contract between the instructor and the student. However, the information in this syllabus is subject to change at any time during the semester. All changes will be stated in class and students are responsible for noting such changes. In the event that you are absent on the day changes are made, it is your responsibility to find out the changes and adhere to them.

The student's decision to attend the class denotes acceptance of:

- ✓ This syllabus as a contract outlining the student's responsibilities to complete all required assignments by the due dates
- ✓ The policy that late assignments will not be accepted
- ✓ The changing syllabus statement
- ✓ The expectations of this course as outlined in this syllabus
- ✓ That final grades are determined on the basis of accumulated points from required assignments
- ✓ The policy that students are responsible for supplying evidence of any discrepancy in grades as determined by returned/graded assignments.

Students disagreeing with the above statements should withdrawal from this course section and enroll in a section of this course taught by another instructor.
