HISTORY 11 COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will examine the key events, individuals, and forces that shaped the development of the United States from its earliest Pre-Columbian and colonial origins up to the Civil War and the Reconstruction era ending in 1877.

HOW THIS ONLINE CLASS WILL FUNCTION: This course is taught entirely online. All of the required learning materials (except the course textbook) for this web-based version of History 11 will be made available online through the course site established on the "CANVAS" learning management system used by the State Center Community College District. On the course site, students will have access to recorded class lectures as well as the course quizzes, exams, homework assignments, and analytical essay assignment.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: The required textbook for this course is entitled American History, Volume 1, by Alan Brinkley. ALL STUDENTS IN ONLINE HISTORY 11 MUST HAVE THIS TEXTBOOK. The 15th edition is the most recent. The 14th and 13th edition of the Brinkley textbook are acceptable also. The title of the Brinkley textbook varies slightly from one edition to another. The newer Brinkley textbooks use the title American History – Connecting with the Past; the older Brinkley textbooks have the title American History – A Survey. Students are encouraged to find the most economical (least expensive) version of the Brinkley textbook, whether it is used or new, purchased or rented.

Students may obtain the required textbook by: (1) purchasing the textbook at the Reedley College Bookstore (I cannot guarantee that the campus book stores at FCC, Madera, or Clovis will have this specific textbook); (2) finding the textbook (new or used) through some online source; (3) purchasing the text from a student who has taken this class; (4) purchasing the online version of the textbook (for those students who do not want to use a conventional hardcopy textbook) from the publisher's website. The publisher is McGraw-Hill.

STUDENTS ENROLLED IN THIS COURSE NEED TO ACQUIRE THE BRINKLEY TEXTBOOK VOL. 1 NOW TO HAVE THE BOOK READY FOR USE BY THE FIRST WEEK OF THE SEMESTER The Brinkley textbook is a basic requirement for this course. The text provides background for the course lectures. Each chapter of the textbook is accompanied by a graded "Q and A" assignment that helps the student earn points while preparing for the course exams.

BASIC SKILLS ADVISORIES FOR HISTORY 11: Eligibility for English 125 and 126.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR HISTORY 11: Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify the origins of America's distinctive political traditions and governmental institutions.
2. Analyze the fundamental changes in the American economy from pre-industrial times to the late 1800s.
3. Identify the key trends and movements in American cultural, social, and intellectual life through 1877.
4. Analyze the causes and consequences of America's foreign policy, war, and its geographical expansion through 1877.
5. Identify the contributions and changing roles of gender and ethnic and racial groups in American history through 1877.
6. Demonstrate the ability to interpret primary and secondary sources, discern between the two and to compose an argument which uses them, as appropriate, for support.

CRITICAL TASK: MUST BE COMPLETED BY THE SECOND DAY OF THE SEMESTER:

By the end of Tuesday, August 16, 2016 every student enrolled in online History 11 must contact the course website on CANVAS, read the course syllabus, and view the orientation video that is required for this course.

There is a clearly marked "START HERE" file on the course homepage where students can confirm that they have completed these two tasks. This is the way students demonstrate that they are genuine students who are "present" for the semester's work. STUDENTS WHO HAVE NOT LOGGED INTO THE COURSE SITE AND COMPLETED THESE TASKS BY 5:00PM ON AUGUST 16 MAY BE DROPPED FROM THE COURSE.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS FOR ONLINE HISTORY 11:

VIEWING RECORDED CLASS LECTURES: The primary learning component of this course consists of recorded lectures delivered by the instructor in front of a live class during a previous semester. These recordings are posted on the course website site for students to view. Students must have access to a computer or other internet-capable device (and the necessary software) that will allow them to view the recorded lectures on the course website. Viewing the recorded lectures is a mandatory activity in this course.

Students need to spend an average of three hours per week viewing the recorded lectures. The lectures make the student's educational experience in this online course similar to a face-to-face class. The recorded lectures are original lectures by the instructor (including power point slides, video clips, and music) that were delivered to a recent face-to-face History 11 class. However, you will have the flexibility to access course materials any hour, day or night.

The recorded lectures are the principal learning tool for students to prepare for five major exams scheduled throughout the semester. No specific points are awarded for viewing each lecture. However, watching the lectures and capturing the information they contain is each student's main responsibility in this online course. Viewing the lectures is the basic learning activity underlying all of the other course assignments. Students who fail to view the recorded lectures put themselves at risk of being dropped from the course.

(NOTICE: the lecture materials presented in this course are intended solely for the use of students enrolled in this course. Reproduction or retransmission of the lectures without the express authorization of the instructor is prohibited.)

- GRADED ASSIGNMENTS FOR ONLINE HISTORY 11: The overall course grade for History 11 depends on the components detailed below.
- FIVE EXAMINATIONS (100 points each): There are five major examinations in this course. Each exam consists of approximately 65 multiple choice questions. The questions are based on the information provided in course lectures and assigned reading from the course textbook. The fifth (and final) exam is NOT comprehensive. All five exams count toward the overall course grade. NO EXAM SCORE WILL BE DROPPED..
- All of the exams will be offered in the online mode on the course website.
- ANALYTICAL ESSAY (TERM PAPER) (100 points plus the possibility of ten bonus points): This is a five page analytical writing assignment. For this assignment, students must choose one topic from a list of six topics provided by the instructor. Each topic will involve reading specific articles required for the essay topic. After reading the required articles, students will write a five page term paper summarizing, comparing, and critiquing the views presented in the articles. No research is required for this assignment; it is a task involving the summary, analysis, and comparison of contrasting ideas in articles by prominent historians and journalists. The specific articles will be supplied by the instructor.
- FOUR QUIZZES: (40 points): There will be four quizzes conducted on the course website at arranged times. Each quiz counts for 10 points
- TEXTBOOK CHAPTER "Q and A" ASSIGNMENTS : (60 points total, with the possibility of bonus points): In the course website file labeled "CHAPTER Q AND A ASSIGNMENTS," the instructor will post a Microsoft Word document containing a series of homework questions relating to each chapter of the course textbook.
 - Students will complete the assignment by reading the indicated textbook chapter, finding the information in the textbook to answer the stated questions, and typing (and saving) their answers to the Q and A assignment into the blank spaces in the Microsoft Word document. The questions contained in the chapter Q and A assignments relate to questions that will appear on the course tests, so the Q & A assignments function as a study guide for each exam.
 - Specific due dates for each Chapter Q and A assignment will be given throughout the semester. Students will submit their completed questions to the instructor through the course website. The completed questions for the textbook chapters leading to Tests # 1, 2, 3, and 4 will count for 15 points each for a total of 60 points. The homework for the textbook chapters leading to Test #5, which is the final exam, will be treated as an extra credit assignment.
- WEEKLY TIME COMMITMENT FOR ONLINE HISTORY 11: Students can anticipate the following tasks each week of the semester: (1) View three hours of recorded lectures on the course website; (2) Read one chapter of the textbook (approximately 30 pages); (3) complete the related chapter homework questions at the same time (13 to 20 questions). The homework answers should reflect a thorough knowledge of the information in the textbook chapters. ESTIMATED HOURS PER WEEK: SIX TO NINE HOURS OF LECTURE VIEWING, READING, AND HOMEWORK.

HOW YOUR OVERALL COURSE GRADE IS CALCULATED:

Total points for the semester: 700. The 700 points include the following elements:

- 500 points (five examinations) +
- 100 points (term paper) +
- 40 points (four quizzes) =
- 60 points (four sets of textbook chapter homework questions, with each set counting for 15 points)

Based on 700 points as the maximum for the class, students who earn 90% or more of the possible points will receive an A; 89% to 80% equals a B; 79% to 70% represents a C; 69% to 60% amounts to a D; 59% or lower translates into a failing grade.

ACCESSING THE ONLINE HISTORY 11 WEBSITE: This course will be presented on the internet learning management system called "Canvas."

The entry portal for Canvas is:

<https://scccd.instructure.com>

If you are uncertain about how to log into Canvas, instructions can be found on the websites of each campus of the State Center Community College District. This course, HIST-11-56609, will be listed on Canvas when you login. Follow the instructions that are given for gaining access to the course site (username, password, etc).

REQUIREMENTS FOR “ACTIVE PARTICIPATION:”

Assignments, announcements, quizzes, exams, and lectures will be available by logging in to the course website on Canvas. The instructor will not record attendance because there is no weekly “attendance” such as would exist in a face-to-face class.

However, this class does require all students to demonstrate that they are actively participating in the course; each student is expected to engage in several hours of study activity for this course every week of the semester.

To demonstrate “active participation” in this course, students must:

- (1) Login to the course website and check for course-related emails at least every two days.
- (2) Make steady and timely progress in completing the reading and Q & A assignments.
- (3) View the course recorded lectures each week as the lectures are posted on the course website. Students should spend an average of two to three hours per week viewing the recorded lectures.

These requirements are intended to assure that students are actively engaged in the class and performing the required assignments in the course, just as would be required in a face-to-face class. Students who fail to demonstrate “active participation” will initially receive a warning from the instructor. Students who demonstrate a persistent pattern of non-participation will be dropped from the course.

BE AWARE OF THE DROP DEADLINE DATE. Students may withdraw from this course without a letter grade until Friday, October 14, 2016. After that date everyone enrolled in the class WILL RECEIVE A LETTER GRADE.

ACCOMMODATION: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e., Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact the instructor as soon as possible.

CLASS POLICY ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING: In this class, cheating on an exam or quiz will typically result in a grade of “zero” points on the exam or quiz. In the case of a plagiarized term paper or homework assignment, the student will typically receive a score of “zero” points on the assignment. Instances of cheating or plagiarism will be referred to the appropriate State Center Community College administrators for consideration of disciplinary procedures.

IF YOU MISS AN ASSIGNMENT: The due dates of all assignments for this class (tests, quizzes, essay, textbook chapter Q and A assignments) will be announced via emails and alerts posted on the course website. Below are policies regarding “missed” or late assignments.

- (1) Late Q & A assignments may be submitted after the due date for partial credit.
- (2) Each quiz will be posted for several days. The expiration date and time of each quiz will be announced in advance. When the quiz expires, there will be no chance to make up that assignment.
- (3) The essay assignment will have an early “bonus” due date and “on time” due date. Late essays will be accepted for a period of time after the “on time” due date with points deducted for lateness. After the late deadline expires, no further essays will be accepted.
- (4) With respect to the five major exams or tests: All test scores count in this course; no test score is dropped. Tests will be posted online for a specific period number of days with a specific expiration time. Students who miss an exam must contact the instructor immediately to make arrangement to take a makeup exam. The makeup exam must be taken with two days of the expiration of the regular exam. The makeup exam will be different from the “regular,” scheduled test. It will cover the same chapters, but it will usually consist of short-answer essay questions, fill-in-the-blank questions, and multiple choice questions.

FINAL COMMENTS AND KEYS TO SUCCESS: You need not be a history major or have any special prior knowledge of American history to perform well in this class. All the information you need for success is available in the recorded lectures, homework assignments, and reading materials, and study guides prepared for this course.

Every student can succeed by working steadily on the assignments (that is, reading the textbook, completing the Q and A questions for each chapter, and viewing the recorded course lectures on the class website every week.) If you have questions or need further explanation regarding any aspect of the course, please contact me via email.

Welcome to History 11. Let’s make this a meaningful and successful semester.
