Assignments/Requirements:

A few notes....

Papers need to be double spaced, 12 point font, 1" margins, stapled, and WITHOUT any report covers. I am not responsible for figuring out who you are if you don't have your name on your paper. Remember always include in top right of paper

- o Name First and Last
- o Date
- o Title of Assignment
- o Class Day and Time

2. Case Studies/Observations: You will be required to demonstrate understanding and application of course content through completing TWO (2) Child Case Study Reports. This assignment will require the student to use observational skills to gather information on one child and present findings in a written paper describing the child's physical, cognitive, social, and emotional development. Additional information will be provided.
3. Articles: You will be required to complete 2 articles relative to "Child Development." The articles are not to exceed more than 1 page. Additional information will be provided.
4. Exams: There will be a total of 3 exams. Exams will be made up of multiple-choice questions related to the materials covered in class. It is recommended that students attend class meetings in preparation for the exams. Exams will be given during class time and no make-up exams will be given (see Course Outline and Schedule for exact dates).
5. In-Class Assignments: We will have many opportunities for in class participation during the semester. I will randomly award points for your participation in these assignments. If you are not in class you can't participate which means you miss the points for that assignment.

Having Problems?

If at any time you find you are having trouble succeeding in this course, whether because of a change in your life circumstances or because of something you don't understand about the materials, please see the instructor.

Class Policies and Procedures:

Attendance:

Learning through sharing and experiences are a large part of this class. Regular attendance is EXPECTED. If you stop coming to class after the deadline, you will get an "F." If you choose to be dropped from this course it is YOUR responsibility to notify the records office by the drop deadline. Late arrivals and early departures will have a negative effect on your grade.

It is your responsibility to plan your time wisely and get the assignments done in a timely manner.

It is your responsibility to respect the requirements and rules of this course. You will be held accountable for all announcements made in class whether you are present or not. You need to get the phone number of a fellow student(s) in order to get information in case of your absence.

Name _____ Phone# _____

1. Late Work: All assignments need be turned in on the due date. They will not be accepted after one week.
2. Missed Tests: Inform the instructor as soon as you know you will miss a test day and arrangements will be made for you to take the test at another time. If you fail to inform the instructor before the test date, it will be too late for you to make up that test. Do not take this lightly. No excuses will be accepted.
3. Retaining Returned Assignments: Students disagreeing with the assigned final grade will be required to supply evidence to the contrary. Therefore, it is suggested that students retain all returned/graded assignments and tests until after they have signed-out on the final day of class.
4. Cheating/Plagiarism: Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated. A student will receive no credit for the assignment if in the opinion of the instructor the individual has cheated.
5. Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e., Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact me as soon as possible.

Changing Syllabus Statement: This course syllabus is equivalent to a contract between the instructor and the student. However, the information in this syllabus is subject to change at any time during the term. All changes will be stated in class and students are responsible for noting such changes. In the event that you are absent on the day changes are made, it is your responsibility to find out the changes and adhere to them.

The student's decision to attend the class denotes acceptance of:

1. This syllabus as a contract outlining the student's responsibilities to complete all required assignments by the due dates
2. The policy that late assignments will not be accepted
3. The changing syllabus statement
4. The expectations of this course as outlined in this syllabus
5. That final grades are determined on the basis of accumulated points from required assignments
6. The policy that students are responsible for supplying evidence of any discrepancy in grades as determined by returned/graded assignments.

Students disagreeing with the above statements should withdrawal from this course section and enroll in a section of this course taught by another instructor.
