Class Policies and Procedures:

Attendance:

The first week of class I will post an introductory Powerpoint outlining the course information and materials.

Students will be expected to view the introductory Powerpoint and respond in writing to the interactive activities on the discussion board.

Students who do not post a written response(s) on the Discussion Board (or email me if there is an issue or problem) by the end of the 1st week may be dropped from the course.

Submitting weekly assignments by 11:59 pm on the day the assignment is due will also be the way that "attendance" is taken.

Assignments/Requirements:

Assignments will vary weekly. This may include written work, group activities, journal writing, or assessment questionnaires.

All written assignments are to be typed unless otherwise specified by instructor.

All assignments must be neat and clearly labeled with student name, date, title of the assignment, and course title.

Papers should be double-spaced, 12point font, one-inch margins,

Always make a copy of your work.

Late assignments – Students have one (1) day to turn in assignments after their due date.

The points will be dropped by 50% (ie. If you turn your assignment in late and the assignment is worth 10 points, you will receive “5” points. On the third day after the assignment was due you will receive”0” points.

Communication Policy

Let me know immediately if you are struggling with something or have any questions or concerns.

You can email me (cecil.trinidad@reedleycollege.edu) or text me through the canvas inbox. I will respond to you within 48 hours.

A Zoom conference can also be set up by texting or emailing me to schedule a zoom meeting:

Assignments will be posted every Monday through canvas announcements or as a Discussion Board post.

Assignments are usually due the Friday of that week.

I will give you regular feedback on assignments through the comments box as relative to assignments turned in

Personal Diversity Statement

Through professional and personal experience, I recognize the need for exposure of cultural and ethnic groups. In our pluralistic society, diversity fosters cultural literacy, broadens the view of the real world, encourages an appreciation and sensitivity to others and the development of skills for communicating effectively with people from different backgrounds in a multicultural world. I am committed to the issue of human rights and human opportunities. The culture, language and learning styles of all must be respected and valued if we are to provide equal opportunities and accessibility for all students.

Dropping the Course

There is nothing wrong with dropping a course if you are overwhelmed or you realize early on the course was not what you expected and you need to make an adjustment to your schedule or take the course at a later date. It is very important for you to officially drop this course through WebAdvisor Not doing so can negatively affect your Financial Aid and transfer considerations. The statements below are taken directly from the Reedley College Catalog

Academic Dishonesty

Students at Reedley College are entitled to the best education that the college can make available to them, and they, their instructors, and their fellow students share the responsibility to ensure that this education is honestly attained. Because cheating, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities erode the integrity of the college, each student is expected to exert an entirely honest effort in all academic endeavors. Academic dishonesty in any form is a very serious offense and will incur serious

Cheating

Cheating is the act or attempted act of taking an examination or performing an assigned, evaluated task in a fraudulent or deceptive manner, such as having improper access to answers, in an attempt to gain an unearned academic advantage. Cheating may include, but is not limited to, copying from another's work, supplying one's work to another, giving or receiving copies of examinations without an instructor's permission, using or displaying notes or devices inappropriate to the conditions of the examination, allowing someone other than the officially enrolled student to represent the student, or failing to disclose research results completely.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a specific form of cheating: the use of another's words or ideas without identifying them as such or giving credit to the source. Plagiarism may include, but is not limited to, failing to provide complete citations and references for all work that draws on the ideas, words, or work of others, failing to identify the contributors to work done in collaboration, submitting duplicate work to be evaluated in different courses without the knowledge and consent of the instructors involved, or failing to observe computer security systems and software copyrights. Incidents of cheating and plagiarism may result in any of a variety of sanctions and penalties, which may range from a failing grade on the particular examination, paper, project, or assignment in question to a failing grade in the course, at the discretion of the instructor.

Cheating/Plagiarism:

Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated. A student will receive no credit for the assignment if in the opinion of the instructor the individual has cheated.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e., Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact me as soon as possible.

Changing Syllabus Statement:

This course syllabus is equivalent to a contract between the instructor and the student. However, the information in this syllabus is subject to change at any time during the semester.
