Course Description:

During this class we will examine the political, economic, religious and social development of the United States through texts, primary documents and literature from the point of Native contact with European colonizers. Through lectures, reading, writing, and research we will focus on the following:

- The development of a new nation,
- World economics and the impact on United States sectionalism,
- Disunion and eventually Civil War and Reconstruction of the nation.

This course requires study and understanding of the U.S. Constitution which fulfills most American Institution requirements.

Student Learning Outcomes

Ø HIST-11 SLO1: Analyze the causes and consequences of America's foreign policy, wars, and its geographical expansion through 1877.

Ø HIST-11 SLO2: Analyze the fundamental changes in the American economy from pre-industrial times to the late 1800s.

Ø HIST-11 SLO3: Demonstrate the ability to interpret primary and secondary sources, discern between the two and to compose an argument which uses them, as appropriate, for support.

Ø HIST-11 SLO4: Identify the contributions and changing roles of gender and ethnic groups in American history to 1877.

Ø HIST-11 SLO5: Identify the key trends and movements in American cultural, social, and intellectual life through 1877.

Ø HIST-11 SLO6: Identify the origins of America's distinctive political traditions and governmental institutions.

Class Objectives:

1. Demonstrate the ability to interpret primary & secondary sources, discern between the two and to compose an argument which uses them, as appropriate, for support.
2. Examine the changes in America's social structure from colonial times to 1877.
3. Analyze the political, economic, and social factors leading to the Civil War.
4. Examine the major battles of the Civil War and compare the relative strengths and weaknesses of the Union and Confederacy in determining the outcome of the Civil War.
5. Assess the consequences of the Reconstruction Era in terms of changes to the United States Constitution, effect on African Americans and race relations, impact on southern states, and effect on the American political system.
6. Evaluate the importance of specific prominent persons, places, and events in United States history from colonial times through 1877.
7. Describe the evolution of the American economy from colonial times to the Reconstruction Era, focusing on the transition from pre-industrial to an increasingly industrial and urban society.
8. Compare and contrast the trends and movements in American social, cultural, and intellectual life through 1877.
9. Analyze the factors present in post-Civil War America (resources, institutions, values, immigration, etc) which caused the United States to enter a period of rapid industrialization and modernization after 1865.
10. Evaluate the contributions, socio-economic conditions and experiences of minority groups in the history of the United States through 1877.

11. Examine the development of political and governmental institutions in the United States up to the end of the Reconstruction Era in 1877.

SHS Library Tech Support

Late and Makeup Assignment Policies:

There are no make ups unless it is an absolute emergency and I have been notified in advance.

Midterm and Final Exams

These assessments will combine multiple choice, true and false, short answer, and essay questions.

Writing Prompts

Each week you will complete a writing prompt (with a few exceptions). There are 13 writing prompts in all, each worth 10 points. Since your writing prompt grade is out of 100 points, this allows for a potential extra credit opportunity..

Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty:

Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Any students caught submitting work that is not their own but is represented as such are subject to discipline by Reedley College. This can range from receiving a letter grade of "F" for the course to expulsion. Students are required to cite the use of materials written by others in all written communications for courses. You need to cite in the text even when paraphrasing. Remember, the use of ideas, words or phrasing without proper attribution constitutes plagiarism. The burden of proof rests on the student, not the instructor; in other words the student will be required to prove that plagiarism has not occurred.

Weekly assignments:

Each week you will complete a chapter quiz based on the reading and notes for the week. They will not be accepted past their assigned week.
