Message from the President

The Clovis Community College (CCC) (State Center Community College District - SCCCD) continues to expand and develop its respective programs, services, and facilities relative to serving the communities in the northern part of the college district. Paramount to the success of Clovis is a comprehensive plan that will delineate the major areas in which to place our time, energy, and resources towards the goal of continual growth and improvement. Based upon the foundation of our past accomplishments, the 2013-2017 Strategic Plan was built upon the critical issues that we face in the future. The CCC 2013-2017 Strategic Plan is also aligned with the overarching SCCCD Strategic Plan, as well as those of Reedley College and Fresno City College in regards to the overall themes and future directions of the district, colleges, and centers.

The planning process for the 2013-2017 Strategic Plan was conducted using a planning Charrette involving the public, the College Council, and workshops conducted at the fall and spring duty day activities involving the faculty, administration, and classified professionals. Also, a resource allocation process is utilized using action plans that directly address the strategic plan goals and objectives. An annual review of the objectives and activities will occur as part of the continual evaluation process.

In closing, I want to thank all of the individuals who have worked on the establishment and implementation of the 2013-2017 Strategic Plan as our foundation for the ongoing cycle of planning, resource allocation, implementation, and evaluation focused on the continual improvement of the Clovis Community College.

*Deborah J. Ikeda,
President*
