

SCCCD CHANCELLOR'S CABINET NOTES

District Office Conference Room

Monday, May 2, 2016, at 2:00 p.m.

Reorganization Diane Clerou led a discussion regarding the reorganization of the DSPS department. After careful consideration of the needed changes it was determined that Barbara Hioco would begin the process by discussing the agreed upon changes with the current district director.

Recommendation to Migrate to Canvas Pedro Avila brought a formal recommendation from the Canvas Workgroup that the district proceed with migrating to Canvas. Academic Senates had all agreed to go by the recommendation of the workgroup. Chancellor's cabinet approved going forward with the migration to Canvas.

District Functional Map and Shared Governance Model Barbara Hioco distributed a District Functional Map and Shared Governance Model. All groups have given the ok to go with this plan. Chancellor's cabinet members need to complete the first column and get back to her.

Cabinet Discussions – Careful, Confidential, Safe Dr. Parnell reminded the chancellor's cabinet members that discussions in cabinet are confidential. They have been so far and he just wants to make sure it stays that way.

ACE – American Council on Education Dr. Parnell asked the group who and how often the services of ACE are used. The group is to follow up with their locations and let Dr. Parnell know so he can decide if it is advisable to renew the membership.

Board Agenda Review – Regular Meeting, May 3, 2016 Dr. Parnell and the group reviewed the agenda for the upcoming Board of Trustees meeting on May 3, 2016.

Good of the Order Ed Eng gave a brief report on the NCCBO meeting that he had attended.

Barbara Hioco reported that apprenticeship programs are near approval.

The chancellor reminded cabinet members that they would be having interviews for the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources on May 5th. They need to be thinking about their questions.

Next Cabinet Meeting: May 9, 2016
