

ENGLISH 26 (Formerly English 51), FALL 1998

Instructor: Laurie Koeplin

Days: W, F Room LS 11

Time: 10:00-11:50

drop date

4 Lecture hours per week.

This class will develop basic reading skills into college-level proficiencies in the areas of vocabulary usage, literal comprehension, and critical reading skills. Trains students to use various reading and reporting strategies for different writing styles. Emphasizes reading as a problem-solving process.

Attendance

Attendance matters. I understand emergencies arise, so use your 8 allowable absences wisely, otherwise you will be dropped from English 26. When absent please leave a message at 638-0300 ext 3985.

Grading

English 26 is graded Credit or No Credit. You can earn credit by meeting these requirements:

1. completing all required reading assignments, text exercises as assigned; at least 70% of all homework
2. meeting the attendance requirement--no more than 8 absences and participating in class activities.
3. A mid-term exam with score of 70% or better.
4. passing quizzes with an average score of 70%
5. Passing a final in class exam with a score of 70% or better.