Final Exam: December 14

Course description: This course will emphasize writing: writing a great deal and in various modes. We will concentrate on generating ideas through public and private journal writing, class discussion and weekly assignments. Our goal is to learn to create lively and interesting papers while emphasizing the importance of careful revision.

Required Texts:

Elbow, Peter and Pat Belanoff. A Community of Writers. 2nd Edition New York: McGraw Hill
1995

Grading Scale:

Class Participation (including attendance)	10%
Journals	20%
Portfolio	40%
Quizzes/Writing Assignments	20%
Final Exam	10%

Attendance Policy: Come to class prepared to discuss the assigned reading/homework. You must bring both journals and any in-progress writing to every class session. Thursday is our day to meet in the computer lab, and you are required to bring your computer disk in addition to your journals, etc. Excessive absences or coming to class unprepared will negatively affect your grade. Tardiness of more than 15 minutes is considered an absence. It is your responsibility to drop this course.

Required Materials:

2 Journal Notebooks
Loose-leaf paper in folder or spiral notebook
Computer Disk
