Fall 2011

ART 2: ART APPRECIATION SYLLABUS

Course Description: This is a lecture course in basic Art Appreciation including studying Media (Architecture, Crafts, Drawing, Film, Digital/Electronic, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture), the elements and principles of Design, terminology and concepts, and art in multicultural/historical contexts (Africa and Oceania, the Americas, Asia, Australia, Europe) from pre-history to the present.

Prerequisites: This is a foundation class. No art background or prerequisites are necessary.

Academic Accommodation: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e. Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please inform me as soon as possible. (Do not wait until five minutes before an exam to inform me. I will not be inclined to believe you.) In addition, it is your responsibility to contact the Disabled Student Services Office at extension 3332 to request Academic Accommodation.

Attendance Policy: Class attendance is mandatory. Students are expected to arrive on time and leave only when the class is dismissed. Any unexcused absences in excess of six (the equivalent of two weeks of class) for the entire semester will result in a lowered final grade. Three late arrivals to class will equal one unexcused absence. Three early departures from class will equal one unexcused absence. High school students taking this class are not excused from attendance even if their high school is not in session. It is the student's responsibility to get assignments and class materials after an absence. Absences are only excused and valid if supporting documentation is presented. It is Board Policy that students who miss two or more weeks of class meetings before the 9th week of class can be dropped.

Personal Electronics Policy: Cell phones, Blackberries, iPods, MP3 players, headphones, and other similar electronic devices will be turned off and stored out of sight during class. If personal electronic devices are used during class, they will be confiscated and available for retrieval in the college president's office. Laptop computers with the sound turned off may be used for taking notes.

Conduct Policy: Students are expected to behave like adults and demonstrate respect for the instructor, other students, the classroom environment, and themselves. Students who are unable or unwilling to conduct themselves appropriately will be required to leave the class until such time they can function maturely. Any quizzes or exams given during such a suspension will NOT be made up and the student will forfeit those points. To minimize disruptive behavior, students will sit according to a seating chart. If you have a need to sit near the front of the classroom, please inform me as soon as possible.

Grading Policy: Regular attendance, completion of all assignments, and other course requirements does NOT guarantee a passing grade. Late assignments will not be accepted. Incomplete assignments will reduce your final grade. You may earn up to 600 points for your final grade.

- 150 points = 15 Quizzes (10 points each)
- 100 points = 5 Worksheets (20 points each)
- 50 points = 1 Art Report
- 100 points = 1 Mid-term examination
- 100 points = 1 Final examination
- 500 points TOTAL

Grading Policy (continued): You may earn 1 extra credit point for each chapter in your textbook that you outline for a total of 13 points. Extra credit must be submitted on the first class meeting of the week. Extra credit does not replace missed work but can make the difference between letter grades.

- A = 500-451 points
- B = 450-401 points
- C = 400-351 points
- D = 350-301 points
- F = 300-0 points

Students will receive a unique, randomly assigned number for the purposes of posting grades anonymously. The mid-term examinations, final examination, and cumulative grades will be posted. It is the student's responsibility to track his or her grade. Do not ask me what your grade is. If you want to know your grade, visit me during office hours or send me an email requesting the information.
