Course Description

This course is designed to develop critical thinking, reading and writing skills beyond the level achieved in English 1A. The course will focus on the development of logical reasoning and analytical and argumentative writing skills based primarily on works of nonfiction.

Course Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- A. Write a synthesized and documented, critical analysis of at least 1500 words which includes:
 - sophisticated introduction, multiple body paragraphs, and a conclusion
 - an arguable claim that aims to contribute to or alter pre-existing ideas on the subject matter
 - supporting details that exhibit critical thinking and use credible, multiple secondary sources
 - researched and evaluated sources for use in the development of their own writing
 - correct usage of MLA format with correct use in-text citations and a works cited page
 - appropriate and purposeful use of quotations
 - causal analysis, advocacy of ideas, definition, persuasion, evaluation, refutation, and interpretation effectively in college-level prose
 - an annotated bibliography of multiple sources
 - correct citations (therefore avoiding plagiarism)
 - identification of logical fallacies in others' writing and avoid them in their own writing
 - details related to main point and with complex analysis
 - evidence of self-editing for errors and revise compositions
 - use of third person/universal
 - awareness of writing for a scholarly audience
 - controlled and sophisticated word choice
 - sentences that exhibit a command of the complex/compound with minimal comma splices, sentence fuses, and fragments
 - use of denotative and connotative aspects of language
- B. Read and critically evaluate college-level non-fiction material from a variety of sources on themes from different content areas
 - Distinguish between valid and sound arguments and invalid and unsound arguments
 - Recognize deductive and inductive language
 - Distinguish factual statements from judgmental statements and knowledge from opinion, identifying the deliberate abuses and manipulations of rhetoric
 - Make logical inferences from information presented
 - Recognize denotative and connotative aspects of language
- C. Discuss issues, supporting their comments with reference to texts

The grading scale is as follows: (note that scores are not rounded)

A	B	C	D	F
100-90% 700-630 points	89-80% 629-560 points	79-70% 559-490 points	69-60% 489-420 points	59% & Below 419-0 points

Essays:

You will write a total of five (5) essays. Each will be worth 100 points. All essays must be typed and follow Modern Language Association (MLA) guidelines. For each essay you will receive a prompt that will outline the specific requirements for each essay. All essays will be submitted as a hard copy in class and to Turnitin via Blackboard. Essays not submitted to Turnitin will not be graded.

Comprehensive Final Exam:

This exam will be given on the date of the final examination, as designated in the Schedule of Courses (and provided for you in this syllabus). The exam will cover material from the assigned reading and lecture/class discussion, as well as films shown in the class. No textbooks will be allowed during the exam. Only original handwritten notes (no photocopies), contained in your notebook, may be used. Your last name must be clearly printed at the top of each note page (front and back) that you intend to use for the exam.

Late Work:

Late work is not accepted. If you miss a class or forget to do an assignment you cannot make up the work. You should consult the instructor prior to missing a due date in order to avoid penalty. In the event of an unforeseen emergency event, you may make up work with verifiable documentation of the reason for your absence.

Attendance:

You are expected to attend/participate in class regularly. There are no “excused” absences. Students will be dropped prior to the final drop date after missing two consecutive weeks of class or accumulating the equivalent of two weeks of absences. “No-shows” on the first day of class will be dropped and only readmitted based upon seat availability. If you are late to class by 5 minutes or more, you will be counted absent for the day—additionally, leaving class early without prior arrangement will result in an absence. Finally, coming to class unprepared will result in an absence.

Disruptive Behavior and Sexual Harassment

Reedley College is committed to the principle that instructors and students must treat each other with courtesy and respect, and it will take action to enforce college policies regarding behavior that violates this principle. These policies are set forth in the student code of conduct at Reedley College.

Mobile Communication Devices must be turned off. If the vibrate mode of your phone causes it to vibrate to the degree that your classmates can hear this vibration, turn your phone completely off. If you are observed text-messaging/using your phone during class you will be asked to leave the class and marked absent for the day.

Guests are not allowed. Only those enrolled in the class will be allowed in the room.
