Course Description:

The field of American politics deals with the organization, distribution, and orientation of political power in American society. This course surveys the processes and institutions of the United States' national, state, and local politics. Among the topics discussed are individual political attitudes and values, political participation, voting, political parties, interest groups, Congress, the presidency, Supreme Court, the federal bureaucracy, civil liberties, civil rights, and domestic and foreign policy. Attention is paid both to the present state of the American political system and to its historical roots.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Recognize the Constitutional processes and principles as they occur in modern U.S. and California politics.
2. Relate the structures, roles and powers of the national, state and local governments.
3. Recognize the impact of various "policy inputs" on the development of public policy in the United States and in California.
4. Identify the categories of policies made by governments within the United States, and relate the questions underlying these policies.

Course Objectives:

In the process of completing this course, students will:

1. Study both the theory and practice of "democracy."
2. Research the forces and political philosophies that influenced the founding fathers of the United States and the framers of the Constitution.
3. Compare and contrast the Articles of Confederation with the Constitution of the United States of America, including a discussion of the Federalist and Anti-Federalist factions.
4. Review the role played by the U. S. Constitution in (a) creating our federal system of government, with its subsequent divided responsibilities, and (b) establishing the separation of powers and checks and balances principles at the national level, as well as the implications of such.

5. Examine the federal system as a practical device to accommodate—within one government—national and local needs unique to the United States.
6. Evaluate the relationship between the Bill of Rights, the government, and the concept of “civil liberty,” noting that liberty is both the absence of governmental intrusion and the result of a set of guarantees that protect the individual against the excesses of government.
7. Assess the idea of civil rights as the rights of all citizens to equal protection of the law, as provided in the 14th Amendment of the Constitution. Students will also explore the development of civil rights, using the evolving civil rights of African-Americans and other groups as examples.
8. Consider his/her role as a voter in the United States political system, and survey the varying forms and systems of elections used in the United States, including primary elections, general elections, California referendum and initiative elections, California recall elections, and the electoral college.
9. Gain an understanding of the characteristics of the American political party system and the functions parties serve in the process of governing.
10. Analyze the issues surrounding the development of public opinion, and its influence on the formation of public policy.
11. Examine the influence of different means of mass communication (media)—both news-based and entertainment-based—on the development of public policy, and the techniques employed by each.
12. Evaluate the positive and negative effects of the countervailing influences of interest groups in American politics, the tactics of interest groups, and the means employed for keeping them honest.
13. Appraise the powers and limitations of the office of the President of the United States, and examine the roles he/she plays as a ceremonial, political, administrative, military, and legislative leader.
14. Examine the various powers/roles of Congress, different theories of representation, and the strengths and weaknesses of the legislative, or lawmaking, process.
15. Study the role of the national courts in interpreting the Constitution, shaping individual rights, and determining the distribution of governmental power. Students will also consider the subtleties of constitutional interpretation, noting that the Constitution is a living document that adapts to changing needs.
16. Explore the vastness and complexity of the bureaucracy. Students will investigate the different national departments and agencies, the characteristics of their growth and evolution and the mechanics of reorganization and reform; and to comprehend the difficulties of effective reform.
17. Examine the programs in the area of domestic policy intended to promote “the general welfare.”
18. Investigate the forces that shape American foreign and defense policy.
19. Study the structure, major functions, and significant powers of both the State of California and local governmental entities. Additionally, students will examine the relationship of state and local institutional powers to the concept of Federalism and survey various examples of direct and indirect democracy at the state and local levels.

Supplemental materials will be provided by the instructor and are required reading for this course. To see what supplemental materials will be assigned, please see page nine (9) of this syllabus. You can retrieve the supplemental materials on your PoliSci 2 Blackboard page unless otherwise indicated. The supplemental materials that will be assigned are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the instructor.

Add/Drop Dates:

Friday, August 22, 2014 – Last day to drop a full-term class for a full refund.

Friday, August 29, 2014 – Last day to register for a full-term class for Fall, 2014; last day to drop a full-term class in person.

Sunday, August 31, 2014 – Last day to drop a full-term class WebAdvisor to avoid a “W” for Fall, 2014.

Beginning with the fourth week of full-term classes, students wishing to add classes must complete a Student Petition for Exception to Enrollment Deadline Due to Extenuating Circumstances form (SPEEDEC), secure the instructor’s approval and explanation for adding beyond the add deadline, secure the Dean’s approval, and present the petition to the registration desk for processing.

Friday, September 12, 2014 – Last day to change a class to or from “Pass/No Pass.”

Friday, October 10, 2014 – Last day to drop a full-term class. Letter grades will be assigned after this date.

Monday, December 8, 2012 – Friday, December 12, 2014 – Finals Week

Friday, December 12, 2014 – End of Fall, 2014 Semester

Monday, December 15, 2014 – Friday, January 2, 2014 – Christmas Holiday

Attendance Requirements & Tardiness Policy:

Due to State Center Community College District (SCCCD) policy, attendance records must be kept. To assist with keeping attendance records, there will be assigned seating via a seating chart and a sign-in sheet. Failure to sit in your assigned seat at the beginning of class will result in being marked absent.

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class using the seating chart and the circulation of a sign-in sheet. A student is considered late if he is not in his assigned seat when class begins. For example, if class begins at 9:30 A.M. and the student is not in his assigned seat at that time, he will be marked tardy. If you are late, you will need to sign in late after class. Otherwise, you will be marked absent.

Two tardies equal one absence. Absences resulting from tardiness will count towards the absences needed to be dropped from the course. For example, if a student is tardy to class twice in a row, the student will be marked absent. As a result, the student will only be able to miss three more classes before he or she is dropped from the course. See below for additional details:

Two Tardies = 1 absence Six Tardies = 3 absences
Four Tardies = 2 absences Eight Tardies = 4 absences; the student will be dropped.

If a student anticipates that he will be arriving to class late, the student must give the instructor prior notice (no later than 24 hours before class), a valid reason (e.g. medical emergency, etc.), and a written letter from the appropriate individual on the individual's letterhead (e.g. a letter from a doctor on the doctor's letterhead). If a student fails to comply with this policy and has an unexcused tardy, the student will be marked tardy in accordance with the policy described above.

If a student needs to leave class early, the student must give the instructor prior notice (no later than 24 hours before class), a valid reason (e.g. medical emergency, etc.), and a written letter from the appropriate individual on the individual's letterhead (e.g. a letter from a doctor on the doctor's letterhead). If a student leaves class early without complying with this policy, the student will be marked absent.

In order for an absence to be excused, the student must give the instructor prior notice (no later than 24 hours before class), a valid reason (e.g. illness, medical emergency, court appearance, car trouble), AND a written letter from the appropriate individual on the individual's letterhead (e.g. a letter from a doctor on the doctor's letterhead, a letter from the court clerk on the court's letterhead, an invoice from an auto repair shop).

A student who has missed two weeks of instruction in a full term class will be dropped.

However, a student cannot be dropped after the ninth week with respect to attendance. The last day to drop a full-term class is Friday, October 10, 2014. A letter grade will be assigned after this date.

Cancelling Class

If class is canceled, the dean's office will post the canceled class to the Reedley College website. Moreover, the instructor will announce that class is canceled on Blackboard and send out an email to the class via Blackboard.

Children and Guests in Class:

Children and guests are not allowed in class.

Participation:

Please be advised that students will be called on randomly during lecture in order to respond to questions related to the material being covered. Therefore, students should complete the required reading before to coming to class. To maximize retention of the material, it is recommended that students review their notes prior to class. There are thirty five (points available for participation. Since attendance is a measure of participation, it should be noted that missing class will result in points being deducted from your participation score, and thus your overall grade. At the same time, good participation will result in having absences removed at the end of the semester.

Behavior:

Conduct in the classroom that detracts from the instructor's ability to deliver the course material and/or a student's ability to receive the course material may trigger the removal procedure outlined in the Student Conduct Code (available at the campus library, Admissions office, Dean of Students office, Student Activities office, and Office of Instruction). Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, reading unrelated material, talking, sleeping, writing letters, text messaging, etc., during class, or failure to treat one's classmates or instructor with respect. Those who engage in such actions can be asked to leave the classroom at the instructor's discretion and subject you to the disciplinary process outlined below. Persisting in such behavior will subject you to further disciplinary action (see below).

Disruptive behavior, willful disobedience, habitual profanity or vulgarity, or the open and persistent defiance of authority or persistent abuse of college personnel is prohibited.

Failure to treat the instructor with respect, including, but not limited to, talking back in a disrespectful tone and emotional outbursts, are prohibited.

Engaging in the prohibited conduct detailed in the syllabus or this addendum is not permitted before, during, or after class. Additionally, such conduct is not permitted via email.

Student should enter the class room quietly out of courtesy to students who are studying prior to class. Likewise, students who arrive late for class should take their seat in a manner that does not disrupt the lecture for either the students or the instructor. For students who have class in AV1-114 and are assigned the front row should take their seat by walking down either the right or left isle and not cross the well (the space between the rostrum and the front row) if they arrive late for class.

Cell phones, pagers, MP3 players, and all other digital or electronic devices are to be turned OFF and PUT AWAY during class. However, if there is an exceptional circumstance that requires you to leave your phone on during class, please notify me before class so that the situation may be judged accordingly. If your request to leave your phone on is granted, please switch your ring setting to the "vibrate" mode. On examination days, no technological devices are allowed to be on. They must be turned off and put away. Failure to adhere to these policies will trigger the disciplinary process outlined below.

Engaging in prohibited conduct in, but not limited to, the syllabus will trigger the following:

1. First incident – Warning and/or conference with the instructor.

2. Second incident – Conference with the Dean of Student Services and/or removal from class for one or more days. Removal from class will activate the process to remove the student from the class for 10 or more days if appropriate.

3. Third incident – Conference with the Dean of Students and Removal from class for one or more days. Persisting in misconduct may subject the student to short-term suspension, long-term suspension, or expulsion.

In spite of the three-step process listed on the previous page, for student behavior that is severe, which includes, but is not limited to, the aforementioned conduct, the instructor reserves the right to remove the student from class immediately for one or more days. Removal from class will activate the process to remove the student from the class for 10 or more days if appropriate.

Cheating and Plagiarism:

Cheating is defined as “the willful and intentional practice of fraudulent and deceptive acts for the purposes of improving a grade or obtaining course credit.” Cheating is NOT limited to examinations only. It extends to any act in which you engage for the purpose of obtaining unmerited academic credit.

Plagiarism is “the fraudulent representation of someone else’s writing or other scholarly material as your own.” That is, the student tries to take credit for the work that someone else did. This includes, but is not limited to, any source you use for a paper, or submitting a fellow student’s homework while representing it as your own work. Please see the North Centers/Reedley Course Catalogue for more on cheating and plagiarism.

Cheating and plagiarism constitute serious offenses which will result in severe consequences to the student. The student will receive a “zero” on the exam, assignment, activity, etc., and may be subject to further disciplinary action.

Grades and Make-Up Exams

Please note that you will be tested on all the materials covered in lecture, the reading assignments, and the handouts. In particular, you will be responsible for the lecture even if the material covered in lecture is not in the reading assignments or handouts. Likewise, you will be responsible for the reading assignments even if the material is not covered in lecture or the handouts. Finally, you will be responsible for the material in the handouts even if that material is not covered in lecture or the reading assignments.

All exams will consist of fifty (50) multiple choice questions worth fifty (50) points.

Exam 1: 50 points	Final: 50 points	A = 351.9 – 391	F = 234.5 & Below
Exam 2: 50 points	Paper: 50 points	B = 312.8 – 351.8
Exam 3: 50 points	Activities: 56 points	C = 273.7 – 312.7
Exam 4: 50 points	Participation: 35 points	D = 234.6 – 273.6

Make-up exams will only be given under special circumstances. In order for a student to qualify for taking a make-up exam, the student must give the instructor prior notice (no later than 24 hours before class), a valid reason (e.g. illness, medical emergency, court appearance, car trouble), AND a written letter from the appropriate individual on the individual's letterhead (e.g. a letter from a doctor on the doctor's letterhead, a letter from the court clerk on the court's letterhead, an invoice from an auto repair shop). Failure to follow the make-up exam requirements, i.e. an unexcused absence on the exam date, will result in a "zero" on the exam. If a student meets the qualifications listed above, a make-up examination must be completed within one week of the original date of administration. Due to the limited availability of space and time constraints on instructors and administrative staff, a single time and date will be chosen by the instructor for all qualified students to make up the exam. The time and date chosen will be the only opportunity for qualified students to make up the exam. If a qualified student fails to appear on the time and date selected for the make-up, the student will receive a "zero" on the exam.

There will be no make-up exam for the final due to the time constraints placed on instructors and administrative staff at the end of the semester.

For students who will require an accommodation due to disability, please see the section below regarding academic adjustments.

Scantrons:

Unless notified otherwise, please use Scantron Form 882-E and a No. 2 pencil for all examinations.

Final Exam Dates:

59098: TTh, 2:00 P.M. – 3:15 P.M., Tuesday, December 9, 2014, 2:00 P.M. – 3:50 P.M.

Holidays:

Monday, September 1, 2014 – Labor Day, No Class, Campus Closed

Tuesday, November 11, 2014 – Veterans Day, No Class, Campus Closed

Thursday, November 27, 2014 – Friday, November 28, 2014, Thanksgiving Holiday, No Class, Campus Closed

Monday, December 15, 2014 – Friday, January 2, 2014 – Christmas Holiday, No Class

Homework Assignments, In-Class Activities, Papers, & Late Work:

Homework assignments will be posted on Blackboard for twenty-four hours following the class session on which the homework is assigned. After the twenty-four hour period has elapsed, the homework assignment will be removed and will not be posted again. Please note the distinction between homework assignments and in-class activities and papers.

Late work is not eligible to receive full credit. For each day the assignment is late, the maximum amount of credit will be reduced by one grade level. At the same time, the student will still be graded on the original point scale. Additionally, if the student's performance warrants a lower score, that score will be assigned. For example, assume a student would have received 20 out of 20 points for a paper but turned in the assignment one day late. The maximum amount of points the student is eligible to receive is 17 points (a "B") out of 20. However, if the student's performance shows that he or she deserves a lower score than the maximum available points, he or she will receive that score. For example, if the student turns in an assignment one day late, the maximum available points are 17. However, if the student deserves only 15 points, the student's grade will be 15 out of 20 points. A student has five calendar days (Saturdays and Sundays are considered "calendar days") from the due date to turn in a late assignment, otherwise the student will receive a "zero" on the assignment.

In order for a student to submit an assignment or paper without penalty, the student must give the instructor prior notice (no later than 24 hours before the due date), a valid reason (e.g. illness, medical emergency, court appearance, car trouble), AND a written letter from the appropriate individual on the individual's letterhead (e.g. a letter from a doctor on the doctor's letterhead, a letter from the court clerk on the court's letterhead, an invoice from an auto repair shop). Failure to follow these requirements will result in a "zero" on the assignment or paper.

For in-class activities, if a student has an unexcused absence on a day in which a class activity or is passed out, the student will not be able to make up the activity and will receive a "zero." Please note the distinction between homework assignments and in-class activities and papers.

For students who will require an accommodation due to disability, please see the section below regarding academic adjustments.

Blackboard:

You will find some important resources for this class on Blackboard. To use Blackboard, you can go to the Reedley College, Willow International, or Oakhurst Center websites. Click on the Bb box. You will then use your student ID number as both your user name and password. Once you've gained access to your Blackboard account, you can then click on any of your classes. You should also seriously consider changing your password to better secure your account. For this political science class, you will see three rectangular categories entitled Announcements, Assignments, and Course documents.

You should check your Blackboard account several times a week for important announcements, assignments, and course documents. The course syllabus will be available under the Course Documents tab. If you do not have a computer or access to one, you can use the media center/library at the Madera Center. It is critical that you get access to a computer since you will want to avoid missing important assignments and announcements that are found online. Should you have any questions regarding Blackboard, please do not hesitate to ask me.

Academic Adjustment due to Disability:

If you have a verified need for an accommodation or accommodations due to disability as described in the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. §§ 12101-12213; 42 U.S.C. §§ 225, 611) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. § 701, et seq.), please notify your instructor as soon as possible (before or after class, email). All reasonable requests will be considered and efforts will be made to accommodate your needs

Papers – General Guidelines:

Handouts detailing all of the requirements for the paper will be passed out at a later date. These handouts are incorporated by reference into the course syllabus and upon distribution, will be effective immediately. What follows are general guidelines for you to keep in mind in anticipation of the paper. Please note that the instructor reserves the right to change these guidelines.

All papers MUST include a “works cited” page noting the materials used to derive the content and arguments. All citations must be formatted according to the American Psychological Association (APA) specifications. When submitted, these materials should be typed in 12-point Times New Roman font, double spaced, and have 1” margins. Students must use complete sentences and paragraphs in response to all questions. These materials will be graded primarily on content, clarity, and completeness. However, a portion of your grade will be based on grammar, spelling, and presentation. Please note that papers must be turned in on the dates they are due during class or the work will be considered late. With respect to late assignments, unexpected medical situations, or other valid reasons for submitting late work, please see the above mentioned section entitled “Homework Assignments, In-Class Activities, Papers, & Late Work.” Regarding submitting work after a deadline due to a preexisting medical or psychological condition, please see the section entitled “Academic Adjustment due to Disability” above.

Caveat:

This syllabus is subject to change at the instructor’s discretion.

Course Readings, Assignments, & Exam Dates

Please note that you will be tested on all the materials covered in lecture, the reading assignments, and the handouts. In particular, you will be responsible for the lecture even if the material covered in lecture is not in the reading assignments or handouts. Likewise, you will be responsible for the reading assignments even if the material is not covered in lecture or the handouts. Finally, you will be responsible for the material in the handouts even if that material is not covered in lecture or the reading assignments.

For assistance with completing the reading assignments, please review the Roman numeral conversion table and symbol key below.

I - 1	V - 5	VIV - 9	XIII - 13	XVII - 17	XXI - 21	XXIV - 25	Art. = Article
II - 2	VI - 6	X - 10	XIV - 14	XVIII - 18	XXII - 22	XXV - 26	§ = Section
III - 3	VII - 7	XI - 11	XV - 15	XIV - 19	XXIII - 23	XXVII - 27	§§ = Sections
IV - 4	VIII - 8	XII - 12	XVI - 16	XX - 20	XXIV - 24	Amend. = Amendment	¶ = Paragraph ¶¶ = Paragraphs

The United States Constitution is in the Appendix of your textbook on pp. A7-A13. Please note that even though multiple sections of the Constitution have been assigned, the reading itself is light as there may be only one sentence, a few sentences, or a few paragraphs associated with each section. In order to have mastery of the material, it will help you to have familiarity with the primary documents.
