VI. Assignments and Exams:

- A. You are to have your book and notebook with you when online. You are expected to read the text each week to familiarize yourself with the highly technical terminology used in nutrition. A broad range of topics is covered extensively and quickly, which demands strenuous study at a rapid pace. It is your responsibility to stay current with reading, notes, and assignments. We will cover about 1 chapter per week. There will be about 1 exam, assignments, and projects due every week. You are to spend at least 9 hours on study each week. You are to log onto the course regularly, see announcements, check email and view the course content
- B. Assignments are due at the day and time stated on blackboard announcements and will not be accepted late.
All work is to be original work and submitted via Blackboard.
- C. Assignments are graded on the following basis:
1. Accuracy of the assignment.
 2. Completeness of assignments.
 3. Your evaluation and presentation of materials.
 4. Organization and presentation of materials.
- D. Exam and assignment make-up policy - Under no circumstances will projects or homework be accepted late. It is your responsibility to make sure that your work is turned in at the time that it is due. There is no make-up for quizzes. Students will not be permitted to take an exam before it is scheduled. Students will be permitted to make - up only one missed exam. There are no retakes of exams. To make - up an exam, the student must take the exam during the scheduled Final exam, during Final's week.

E. You are expected to have the required text and register Online Diet Analysis no later than the second week of class. Failure to do so could result in a loss of points.

F. When taking tests on Blackboard, do so on a timely basis or you will be logged off. Use a computer that is not wireless because you might lose a connection and not be able to get back into the exam. If the exam gets locked, you may ask the instructor to reset the exam no later than 2 hours before the exam time ends.

G. Exams will be available beginning and ending at 12 noon.

The following is taken from the Reedley College Catalog:

Academic Dishonesty

Students at Reedley College are entitled to the best education that the college can make available to them, and they, their instructors, and their fellow students share the responsibility to ensure that this education is honestly attained. Because cheating, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities erode the integrity of the college, each student is expected to exert an entirely honest effort in all academic endeavors. Academic dishonesty in any form is a very serious offense and will incur serious consequences.

Cheating

Cheating is the act or attempted act of taking an examination or performing an assigned, evaluated task in a fraudulent or deceptive manner, such as having improper access to answers, in an attempt to gain an unearned academic advantage. Cheating may include, but is not limited to, copying from another's work, supplying one's work to another, giving or receiving copies of examinations without an instructor's permission, using or displaying notes or devices inappropriate to the conditions of the examination, allowing someone other than the officially enrolled student to represent the student, or failing to disclose research results completely.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a specific form of cheating: the use of another's words or ideas without identifying them as such or giving credit to the source. Plagiarism may include, but is not limited to, failing to provide complete citations and references for all work that draws on the ideas, words, or work of others, failing to identify the contributors to work done in collaboration, submitting duplicate work to be evaluated in different courses without the knowledge and consent of the instructors involved, or failing to observe computer security systems and software copyrights. Incidents of cheating and plagiarism may result in any of a variety of sanctions and penalties, which may range from a failing grade on the particular examination, paper, project, or assignment in question to a failing grade in the course, at the discretion of the instructor and depending on the severity and frequency of the incidents.

VII. Blackboard: The website is: <http://blackboard.reedleycollege.edu>

The standard Blackboard login is:

Username: student id number

Password: student id number

VIII. Attendance:

- A Your attendance is based on activity and assignments. You are to log onto Blackboard on a regular basis.
- B A total of 2 weeks of absence may result in being dropped from the class.
- C It is the student's responsibility to drop from the class.
- D A student's participation is considered to be important to the quality of their learning and to insure their opportunity to contribute to the learning. Students should consider this online class to be their job and grades to be their pay. Work schedules, other courses, job interviews, vacations, and personal appointments are not excuses for not participating in this online class. Those commitments you must learn to manage on you off-duty time.
- E The teaching techniques involved in this online class involve collaborative learning. You are expected to post messages to the message board, take notes, keep up with reading, ask questions, make comments, and contribute to discussion board so that we may learn from each other.
- F Accommodations for students with disabilities: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e.: Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact me, or the DSPS office – ext. 3332 as soon as possible.

All of your Blackboard activity is statistically collected and evaluated by the Instructor.

- A. It will be helpful to find a study buddy who is willing to share notes and study together.
