HISTORY 11 COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will examine the key events, individuals, and forces that shaped the development of the United States from its earliest Pre-Columbian and colonial origins up to the Civil War and the Reconstruction era ending in 1877.

HOW THIS ONLINE CLASS WILL FUNCTION: This course is 100% online. No face-to-face meetings are required as part of this class. All of the required learning materials (except the course textbook) for this web-based version of History 11 will be made available online through the course site established on the CANVAS learning management system used by the State Center Community College District. The materials include videos of in-class lectures, homework assignments from the textbook, quizzes, exams, and the analytical essay assignment.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: The required textbook for this course is entitled American History, Volume 1, by Alan Brinkley, published by McGraw-Hill. ALL STUDENTS IN ONLINE HISTORY 11 MUST HAVE THIS TEXTBOOK. The 15th edition is the most recent. The 14th and 13th edition of the Brinkley textbook are acceptable also. The title of the Brinkley textbook varies slightly from one edition to another. The newer Brinkley textbooks use the title American History – Connecting with the Past; the older Brinkley textbooks have the title American History – A Survey. Students should find the least expensive version of the Brinkley textbook, whether it is used or new, purchased or rented.

STUDENTS ENROLLED IN THIS COURSE NEED TO ACQUIRE THE BRINKLEY TEXTBOOK VOL. 1 NOW TO HAVE THE BOOK READY FOR USE BY THE FIRST WEEK OF THE SEMESTER. The Brinkley textbook is a basic requirement for this course. The Brinkley textbook supplements the information given in the recorded lectures and helps students answer the questions in the “Test Workbook” assignments that are part of the overall grade in this course.

ATTENTION!!! IF YOU DO NOT HAVE THE BRINKLEY TEXTBOOK BY THE START OF THE SEMESTER, THERE IS AN ALTERNATIVE FOR YOU. A free online textbook is posted in the Modules file on the HIST-11-55177 website on Canvas. You may use this free online source as a textbook for this course until you obtain the recommended textbook. The online textbook DOES NOT PROVIDE EXACTLY THE SAME INFORMATION as the Brinkley textbook. However, it is a satisfactory and reputable source IF YOU CANNOT OBTAIN THE BRINKLEY TEXTBOOK BY THE START OF THE SEMESTER. Go to the Modules file on the course Canvas site, locate the online text, and start with the first chapter.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR HISTORY 11: Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify the origins of America’s distinctive political traditions and governmental institutions.
2. Analyze the fundamental changes in the American economy from pre-industrial times to the late 1800s.
3. Identify the key trends and movements in American cultural, social, and intellectual life through 1877.
4. Analyze the causes and consequences of America’s foreign policy, war, and its geographical expansion through 1877.
5. Identify the contributions and changing roles of gender and ethnic and racial groups in American history through 1877.
6. Demonstrate the ability to interpret primary and secondary sources, discern between the two and to compose an argument which uses them, as appropriate, for support.

CRITICAL TASK TO BE COMPLETED BY THE THIRD DAY OF THE SEMESTER: By the end of Wednesday, January 16, 2019, every student enrolled in online History 11 must contact the course website, read the course syllabus, and view the orientation video that is required for this course. There is a clearly marked “START HERE” file on the course homepage where students can confirm that they have completed these tasks. By this process, students verify their status as active course participants. STUDENTS WHO HAVE NOT COMPLETED THESE TASKS BY 5:00PM WEDNESDAY JANUARY 16 MAY BE DROPPED FROM THE COURSE.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS FOR ONLINE HISTORY 11:

 VIEW THE RECORDED LECTURES POSTED ON CANVAS: Each week the instructor will post several recorded lectures on Canvas for students to view. The recorded lectures are the most important learning activity in this course. Viewing the recorded lectures is a mandatory activity in this course. Every student must have the necessary technology and software to view these lectures and capture their information.

VIEW THE RECORDED LECTURES: Students need to spend two to three hours per week viewing the recorded lectures. The recorded lectures consist of original lessons (with power point slide and video clips) that were delivered by the instructor to a recent face-to-face History 11 class. The recorded lectures make the student's experience in this online course similar to a face-to-face class, except that you will have the flexibility to access course materials any hour, day or night.

The recorded lectures represent the primary learning tool for students in this course. The information provided in the lectures is essential to prepare for five major exams scheduled throughout the semester. No specific points are awarded for watching each lecture, HOWEVER, VIEWING THE RECORDED LECTURES AND CAPTURING THE INFORMATION THEY CONTAIN IS EACH STUDENT'S MAIN RESPONSIBILITY IN THIS ONLINE COURSE. Students who do not view the recorded lectures put themselves at risk of being dropped from the course.

(The lecture materials presented in this course are intended solely for the use of students enrolled in this course. Reproduction or retransmission of the lectures without the express authorization of the instructor is prohibited.)

GRADED ASSIGNMENTS FOR ONLINE HISTORY 11: The overall course grade for History 11 depends on the components detailed below.

FIVE EXAMINATIONS (100 points each): There are five major examinations in this course. Each exam consists of approximately 65 multiple choice questions. The questions are based on the information provided in course lectures and assigned reading from the course textbook. The fifth (and final) exam is NOT comprehensive. All five exams count toward the overall course grade. NO EXAM SCORE WILL BE DROPPED.

- All of the exams will be offered in the online mode on the course website.

ANALYTICAL ESSAY (125 points plus the possibility of ten bonus points): This is a five page analytical writing assignment. For this assignment, students must choose one topic from a list of topics provided by the instructor. Each topic will involve reading specific articles. After reading the required articles, students will write a five page essay summarizing, comparing, and critiquing the views presented in the articles. No research is required for this assignment; it is a task involving the summary, analysis, and comparison of contrasting ideas in articles by prominent historians and journalists. The instructor will post the required articles for each topic on the course Canvas site.

FIVE QUIZZES: (50 points): There will be FIVE quizzes conducted on the course website at arranged times. Each quiz counts for 10 points

"WORKBOOK" ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE FIVE TESTS OF THE SEMESTER: (5 workbooks @ 25 points each = 125 points total, with the possibility of bonus points): Find the ASSIGNMENTS file on the course Canvas site. Look for the item labeled "TEST WORKBOOK ASSIGNMENTS." The instructor will post a workbook for each test. Each workbook, presented in the form of a Microsoft Word document, lists a series of homework questions relating to the recorded lectures and reading required for each of the five major tests this semester.

- To complete the Workbook assignments, students need to view the assigned recorded lectures posted on Canvas and read the textbook chapters indicated by the instructor. From these sources, students will find the information to answer questions in the Workbook, typing (and saving) their answers into the workbook document (a Microsoft file). By answering the workbook questions, students are earning points and also learning the specific information they will need to answer questions on each major test.

Specific due dates will be given for each workbook assignment. Students will submit their completed questions to the instructor through the course website on Canvas. The completed questions for the textbook chapters leading to Tests # 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 will count for 25 points each for a total of 125 points.

WEEKLY TIME COMMITMENT FOR ONLINE HISTORY 11: Students can anticipate the following tasks each week of the semester: (1) View three hours of recorded lectures on the course website; (2) Read one chapter of the textbook (approximately 30 pages); (3) complete the related workbook questions. ESTIMATED HOURS PER WEEK: SIX TO NINE HOURS OF LECTURE VIEWING, READING, AND HOMEWORK.

HOW YOUR OVERALL COURSE GRADE IS CALCULATED: There are 800 total points in this course, including:

- 500 points (five examinations) +
- 125 points (analytical essay) +
- 50 points (five quizzes) +
- 125 points (five sets of Test Workbook questions; each set counts for 25 points)

Based on 800 points as the maximum for the class, students who earn 90% or more of the possible points will receive an A; 89% to 80% equals a B; 79% to 70% represents a C; 69% to 60% amounts to a D; 59% or lower translates into an F.

ACCESSING THE ONLINE HISTORY 11 WEBSITE: This course will be presented on the "Canvas" internet learning management system. The entry portal for Canvas is: <https://scccd.instructure.com>
If you are uncertain about how to log into Canvas, look for instructions on the websites of each campus of the State Center Community College District. This course will be listed on Canvas when you login. Follow the instructions for gaining access to the course site.

★ REQUIREMENTS FOR “ACTIVE PARTICIPATION:”

Assignments, announcements, quizzes, exams, and lectures will be available by logging in to the course website on Canvas. The instructor will not record attendance because this course requires no face-to-face attendance.

However, this class does require all students to demonstrate that they are actively participating in the course.; Each student is expected to engage in several hours of study activity for this course every week of the semester.

To demonstrate “active participation” in this course, students must:

- (1) Login to the course website and check for course-related emails at least every two days.
- (2) Make steady and timely progress in completing the reading and Test Workbook assignments.
- (3) View the recorded lectures each week on the course website. STUDENTS SHOULD SPEND AN AVERAGE OF TWO TO THREE HOURS PER WEEK VIEWING THE RECORDED LECTURES.*

These requirements are intended to assure that students are actively engaged in the class and performing the required assignments in the course, just as would be required in a face-to-face class. Students who fail to demonstrate “active participation” will initially receive a warning from the instructor. Students who demonstrate a persistent pattern of non-participation will be dropped from the course.

BE AWARE OF THE DROP DEADLINE DATE. Students may withdraw from this course without a letter grade until Friday, March 15, 2019. After that date, everyone enrolled in the class WILL RECEIVE A LETTER GRADE.

ACCOMMODATION: If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e., Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact the instructor as soon as possible.

CLASS POLICY ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING: In this class, cheating on an exam or quiz will typically result in a grade of “zero” points on the exam or quiz. In the case of a plagiarized term paper or homework assignment, the student will typically receive a score of “zero” points on the assignment. Instances of cheating or plagiarism will be referred to the appropriate State Center Community College administrators for consideration of disciplinary procedures.

IF YOU MISS AN ASSIGNMENT: The due dates of all assignments for this class (tests, quizzes, essay, test workbook assignments) will be announced via emails and alerts posted on the course website. Below are policies regarding “missed” or late assignments.

- (1) Late workbook assignments may be accepted, for reduced credit, for a brief period after the official due date..
- (2) Every quiz will be posted for several days. The expiration date and time of every quiz will be announced in advance. When the quiz expires, its expiration is final. There will not be a makeup opportunity for an expired quiz.
- (3) The essay assignment will have an early “bonus” due date and “on time” due date. Late essays will be accepted for a period after the “on time” due date with points deducted for lateness. After the late deadline expires, the assignment is closed.
- (4) Concerning the five major exams or tests: All test scores count in this course; no test score is dropped. Tests will be posted online for a specific number of days with a specific expiration time.

Students who miss an exam must contact the instructor immediately to make arrangement to take a makeup exam. The makeup exam must be taken with two days of the expiration of the regular exam. The makeup exam will be different from the “regular,” scheduled test. It will cover the same chapters, but it will usually consist of short-answer essay questions, fill-in-the-blank questions, and multiple-choice questions. No makeup exam is available for the final exam (Test # 5). Students must take the final exam while it is posted online during finals week.

FINAL COMMENTS AND KEYS TO SUCCESS: You need not be a history major or have any special prior knowledge of American history to perform well in this class. All the information you need to earn a strong grade is available on the course Canvas site.

Every student can succeed by working steadily on the assignments each week. View the recorded lectures, read the assigned textbook chapters, complete the workbook assignments, and use the study guide materials provided for every test. If you do these things, you should be successful in online History 11.

Welcome to History 11. Let’s make this a meaningful and successful semester.
