Academic Honesty and Disruption

For detailed information regarding Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, and Disruption, please see pages 46-47 of the Reedley College Catalogue. From the catalogue: "Because cheating, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities erode the integrity of the college, each student is expected to exert an entirely honest effort in all academic endeavors. Academic dishonesty in any form is a very serious offense and will incur serious consequences."

Please turn off and stow all cell phones and other electronic devices during class. Students may be dismissed from class and counted as absent for creating excessive disruptions.

Course Expectations, Late Work, Visitors, and Extra Credit

- It is expected that students will attend all class sessions and participate fully.
- Late work and missed quizzes or exams will not be accepted without prior written consent of the instructor.
- Per the SCCCD policy, visitors (including children) are not allowed in classes without prior written consent of the instructor.
- Extra credit, while unusual, will be offered to every student in the class equally.

Course Grading and Evaluation

- Weekly Quizzes/Presentation – 20% –
 - Quizzes will be held each Friday that there is no Midterm or Final Exam and will address topics discussed during that week. No make-ups will be allowed without advance notice regarding an absence. 1 quiz score will be dropped from the final grade.
 - Students will be assigned one presentation on a theory topic related to the course. Information will be provided.
- Homework – 40% – Students will submit homework at the start of class on the day assigned. Scores will be based largely on completion.
- Midterm Exam – 20% – There will be one midterm exam covering topics addressed to the midterm. It will occur on Friday, March 8th.
- Final Exam – 20% – The final for this course will be Monday, May 20th at 9:00AM-10:50AM.

Attendance - Attendance at all class sessions is required. This is a progressive course that develops and builds on itself over time. One cannot acquire classroom information and experience if he/she is not in attendance. Absences will be reflected in your final grade. You will be allowed 2 absences with no additional penalty than any zeros received on quizzes or exams. After 2 absences, you will lose 5% off of your final grade for each absence. In serious, documented cases, a quiz may be made up in advance of an absence.

Assignments provide a means for you to practice the material covered in class and a means for your instructor to evaluate your proficiency with the material. Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date indicated. Late assignments will not be accepted. You are responsible for the work assigned in class even if you are absent. Quizzes provide a means for your instructor to test your comprehension of material covered in class. Quizzes are normally short and do not occupy the entire class meeting. Makeup quizzes will not be given.
