Child Growth & Development
Fall 2020

Instructor: Jenise Box

Class Time: Virtual Classroom

Email: jenise.box@reedleycollege.edu

Office: Virtual Office

Virtual Office Hours: Thursday's 6:00pm-7:00pm & by Appointment

Required Texts: NO TEXTBOOK FOR THIS CLASS! This is an Open Educational Resource (ORE) Course. All reading and information for this class will be available via Canvas.

Course Description:

This course focuses on the major physical, cognitive, social and emotional developmental milestones for children from conception through adolescence. Emphasis will be placed on the interactions between maturational processes and environmental factors. Students will observe children, evaluate individual differences, and analyze characteristics of development at various stages according to developmental theories

Course Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

- Describe development of children from conception through adolescence in the physical, social, emotional, and cognitive domains.
- Identify cultural, economic, political, and historical contexts that impact children's development.
- Apply knowledge of development and major theoretical frameworks to child observations.

Course Objectives:

During the course the student will:

- Assignments:
 - Virtual In-Class Activities: Virtual In-class activities will be given throughout the course. There are NO make-ups for in class activities. Examples of these assignments include Flipgrid and Discussions Boards. Each in-class activity assignment will have a small point value. SLO #1 - #3.
 - Weekly Participation: You are expected to log in each week for this course and participate in discussions and complete any assigned materials. This counts towards your attendance for this course. SLO #1- #3.
 - Quick Write Assignments: You will have an opportunity to connect and reflect on the weeks course content to real-life or real-life scenarios. These will vary between short essay prompts, video practice, or assigned readings. SLO # 1 – #3.
 - Quizzes: There will be a short quiz at the end of most learning modules. These will include information from the recorded lectures and assigned readings. SLO # 1 – #3.

- Observational Studies: Students will have four observational studies that require careful analysis of development through each of the stages course: infancy & toddlerhood, early childhood, middle childhood, and adolescence. SLO # 1 – #2
- Comprehensive Final Exam – The final for this course is a comprehensive exam that will cover the major points of development learned throughout the course. SLO # 2-#3

Course Policies:

Classroom Expectations

- Students are expected to attend and actively participate in class discussions and activities. This includes virtual sections for this course.
- Students are expected to conduct themselves, according to the Student Conduct Standards.
- Students are expected to be respectful of fellow students and the instructor at all times.
- Students are expected to arrive on time. Late arrival will not be tolerated.
- Cheating and plagiarism will be cause for disciplinary action.
- Students are expected to come to class prepared and ready for the day.
 - Active participation, even virtually, is likely to enhance your enjoyment of the course material and facilitate a higher level of learning. You will be encouraged to share your own reactions to course materials, questions, and ideas, as these are what will enable you, your classmates, and your instructor to gain the most from our time together. Reading the assigned materials prior to class is crucial. Being able to critically analyze what you have read and discussed, as well as make connections to real world settings when applicable, are ultimate goals.

Course Assignments/Requirements:

Assignments will vary daily/weekly. This may include written work, individual and group activities, article reports, reading or assignments. Students are expected to attend class prepared to discuss/present assignments. Remember that your performance in class is directly related to how much time and effort you put into the class material. For every hour in class, expect you will estimate spending one to two hours studying outside of class. Before completing assignments, please keep in mind the following:

- All assignments are to be typed unless otherwise specified by the instructor.
- All assignments must be neat and clearly labeled with student name, date, title of the assignment, and class day/time.
- Papers should be double-spaced, 12-point times new roman font, spell – checked, one-inch margins in an easy to read font.
- Always save a copy of your work.
- Take responsibility to present completed, polished college level work on-time.
- All papers must be corrected for proper punctuation, grammar and spelling.
- Late Assignments:
 - For this course, assignments are due (unless otherwise specified) every Monday by 11:59pm. Assignments are assigned well in advance and must be submitted on time; however, life happens and as a result the student may be unable to complete an assignment by the scheduled due date. For this reason, students are allowed to use TWO Late Assignment Passes during the course of the semester. If you know you will be unable to turn in your work by the due date, you must contact the instructor immediately so we can work out a reasonable due date. After two late assignments, I will no longer accept late work. Quizzes will not be accepted late!

Course Written Work Expectations:

Proper writing is a basic expectation when someone has earned a college degree and writing quality does matter as a college student and in the profession as an educator. If you intend to work with children and families, there will be many times when you need to communicate information that is crucial, including rationale for continued funding for your job and the children and families you serve. It is valuable to you if you are able to communicate through writing and that you used consistent writing mechanics.

All assignments completed in this class are expected to have college level quality writing which includes proper use of grammar, usage, mechanics, style, as well as proper APA citing style where applicable. All outside classroom assignments are to be typed. Assignments turned in handwritten will result in a score of zero.

- American Psychological Association (APA)
 - In this course you will be using American Psychological Association (APA) formatting for all assignments (unless otherwise specified). If you are unfamiliar with this type of formatting, I strongly suggest that you utilize campus resources to ensure academic success. Please see the “Campus Resources” section towards the end of the syllabus for additional information.

Course Communication Policy:

It is important for instructors and students to maintain clear and concise communication throughout the duration of this course. This is especially true for online courses. In our course, you will have two options to communicate with me, depending what your preference is:

- Canvas Messaging
 - If for any reason you need my assistance, you may contact me through Canvas Messaging system. I will be available to answer emails during the following days and times;
 - Email: Monday - Friday 9:00am-4:00pm
 - Virtual Office Hour: Thursday's 6:00pm-7:00pm via Zoom.
 - I do not usually respond to emails over the weekend or during holidays, so please make sure to get ahold of me on Friday before the end of day. Also, please allow a 24 to 48-hour turnaround time for emails. If for some reason I do not reply back within this time frame, please send me another email!
- Zoom
 - Another way to contact me is through Zoom. If this method is easier or preferred, please contact me first to set up a day and time to meet privately one-on-one.
 - Once a week in this course, I will provide an Optional Classroom Zoom Meeting. What this means is I will be logged in for one hour and during this hour, you can log in and ask me questions about the course and get any additional help.

- The Zoom link for our reoccurring optional meetings will be displayed on our course's homepage.
- Please remember that if you are struggling and need help to reach out to me as soon as possible! I am more than willing to help you to the best of my ability. However, do not make the mistake of waiting until the end of the semester to get help from the instructor or other campus resources. Please refer to the "Campus Resources" section towards the end of the syllabus for more information.

Course Attendance:

- Failing to log in each week and turn in assignments is considered an absence for this course.
- If you fail to log in and complete the syllabus quiz for this course during the first week of instruction, you may be dropped by the instructor.
- If you miss more than three log in's for Canvas (a consecutive three-week absence) the instructor may drop you.
- Dropping after the drop date will result in an "F" grade.
- It is the student's responsibility to drop a class if they no longer intend to participate.

Student Conduct and Cheating:

The statements below are taken directly from the Reedley College Catalog:

- Academic Dishonesty
 - "Students at Reedley College are entitled to the best education that the college can make available to them, and they, their instructors, and their fellow students share the responsibility to ensure that this education is honestly attained. Because cheating, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities erode the integrity of the college, each student is expected to exert an entirely honest effort in all academic endeavors. Academic dishonesty in any form is a very serious offense and will incur serious consequences".
- Cheating
 - "Cheating is the act or attempted act of taking an examination or performing an assigned, evaluated task in a fraudulent or deceptive manner, such as having improper access to answers, in an attempt to gain an unearned academic advantage. Cheating may include, but is not limited to, copying from another's work, supplying one's work to another, giving or receiving copies of examinations without an instructor's permission, using or displaying notes or devices inappropriate to the conditions of the examination, allowing someone other than the officially enrolled student to represent the student, or failing to disclose research results completely".
- Plagiarism
 - "Plagiarism is a specific form of cheating: the use of another's words or ideas without identifying them as such or giving credit to the source. Plagiarism may include, but is not limited to, failing to provide complete citations and references for all work that draws on the ideas, words, or work of others, failing to identify the contributors to work done in collaboration, submitting duplicate work to be evaluated in different courses without the knowledge and consent of the instructors involved, or failing to observe computer security systems and software copyrights. Incidents of cheating and plagiarism may result in any of a variety of sanctions and penalties, which may range from a failing grade on the particular examination, paper, project, or assignment in question to a failing grade in the course, at the discretion of the instructor and depending on the severity and frequency of the incidents. For more information, contact the Vice President of Student Services' Office or the Vice President of Instruction's Office".

- Cheating/Plagiarism:
 - "Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated. A student will receive no credit for the assignment if in the opinion of the instructor the individual has cheated".

Canvas:

Information about this course, and resources for it, will be available on Canvas. Canvas is available at through the main Reedley College home page. You will use your RC username and password to login. Through Canvas, you will be able to access the syllabus, assignment guidelines, and any handouts that will supplement the texts and/or lectures. In addition, you will be able to send email to your classmates and me. You will also be able to use Canvas to check your grades online. You should monitor your grades to be sure they are entered accurately and completely. If there is a mistake, please bring it to my attention as soon as you notice it. Journal entries will be utilized through Canvas. Please keep all returned assignments until your final grade has been posted at the end of the semester.

Please note that ONLY your RC (my.scccd) email address is recognized by Canvas or for emails. Any messages that I send to the class will be sent through Canvas, and therefore through your RC my.scccd email address. I will not respond to personal emails due to spam and other computer viruses. Please only use your Reedley College email when communicating with me via email. You are responsible for information disseminated through email; ignorance ("I didn't check my email," "My e-mail isn't working," "I don't have access to a computer," etc.) is not an acceptable excuse.

Syllabus Disclaimer:

This course syllabus is equivalent to a contract between the instructor and the student. However, the information in this syllabus is subject to change at any time during the semester. All changes will be stated in class and students are responsible for noting such changes. In the event that you are absent on the day changes are made, it is your responsibility to find out the changes and adhere to them. The student's decision to attend the class denotes acceptance of the following:

- This syllabus as a contract outlining the student's responsibilities to complete all required assignments by the due dates.
- The policy that late assignments will not be accepted
- The changing syllabus statements.
- The expectations of this course as outlined in this syllabus
- That final grades are determined on the basis of accumulated points from required assignments
 - The policy that students are responsible for supplying evidence of any discrepancy in grades as determined by returned/graded assignments.

Students disagreeing with the above statements should withdrawal from this course section and enroll in a section of this course taught by another instructor.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities:

If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e., Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, please contact me as soon as possible. The instructor will comply with the requirements of the American's with Disabilities Act (ADA), by appropriately accommodating any student with a verified disability.
