REEDLEY COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Fitness Walking P.E. 16

ffice: P.E. 312 none: 638-0387	Instructor:
ffice hours: Posted on office door purse Description: This course is designed for students to increase each dividuals level of cardiovascular and muscular endurance. It is also designed to ake students aware of why, what, and how important "walking" can be to help ith general wellness and weight control. Durse Objectives: 1. Increased Fitness 2. Understanding of basic heart rate principles and how it applies to exercise and training. 3. For students to get a better understanding of fitness and an appreciation of exercise at the personal level 4. Enjoy and have fun! Durse Requirements: 1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final dividuals level of cardiovascular and muscular endurance. It is also designed to ake students aware of why, what, and how important "walking" can be to help ith general wellness and weight control. Ourse Objectives:	Office hours: Posted on office door
dividuals level of cardiovascular and muscular endurance. It is also designed to ake students aware of why, what, and how important "walking" can be to help ith general wellness and weight control. Ourse Objectives:	Course Descr
ake students aware of why, what, and how important "walking" can be to help ith general wellness and weight control. Durse Objectives: 1. Increased Fitness 2. Understanding of basic heart rate principles and how it applies to exercise and training. 3. For students to get a better understanding of fitness and an appreciation of exercise at the personal level 4. Enjoy and have fun! Durse Requirements: 1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final ith general wellness and weight control. Durse Objectives: 1. Increased Fitness 2. Understanding of basic heart rate principles and how it applies to exercise and training. 3. For students to get a better understanding of fitness and an appreciation of exercise at the personal level 4. Enjoy and have fun! Durse Requirements: 1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final Increased Fitness Understanding of basic heart rate principles and how it applies to exercise and training. For students to get a better understanding of fitness and an appreciation of exercise at the personal level Enjoy and have fun! Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final Understanding of basic heart rate principles and how it applies to exercise and training. For students to get a better understanding of fitness and an appreciation of exercise at the personal level Enjoy and have fun! Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final 	Course Obje exercise and training. 3. For students to get a better understanding of fitness and an appreciation of exercise at the personal level 4. Enjoy and have fun! ourse Requirements: 1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	1. I of exercise at the personal level 4. Enjoy and have fun! ourse Requirements: 1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final
1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2.Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final
1. Participation: attendance and participation are very important. Obviously you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	4. E
you need to be in attendance to participate. One half (50%) of your grade is based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	Course Requ
based on participation during each class session. Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	1. Partic
Your participation grade will be determined by the number of times you attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	you n attend class divided by the total number of class meeting times in the semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	based semester. A standard percentage scale (90% plus = A, etc.) will be used. Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	Your Excessive absences will affect your grade and may result in being dropped form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	attend form class. For each unexcused absence (no dress/no participation) you will not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	semes not earn credit for that class session. 2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	Exces
2. Examinations: There will be two written (mid and final) and two skills (pre and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	form ( and post) exams in this class. These exams will combine for 50% of your final	not ea
	2.Examin
grade (25% written, 25% skills).	and post)
	grade (25
Final Grade Determination:	Fi
Participation: 50% $100-90\% = A$ $69-60\% = D$	Pa
Tests : 50% $89-80\% = B$ 59% below = F	Te
Total: 100% $79-70\% = C$	To
It is responsibility of the student to understand the drop policy written in the	It is r class schedule.* Last day to drop class and receive a refund.
Last day to drop a class.	22455

Course Expectations

- 1. Proper attire should be worn for ease of movement, protection and safety. Please no frayed, torn clothing or any jewelry that might restrict you.
- 2. It is important to wear good supportive shoes to reduce risk of injury. This includes tennis shoe and socks.
- 3. Report all injuries immediately. If you have any physical limitations please report them to me in writing to prevent injury.
- 4. Feel free to bring water bottles ad towels to class but please no food or drink inside any of the buildings we may gather in.
- 5. Class will begin five minutes (dress) after the scheduled start time and end ten minutes (shower/dress) before the scheduled leave time. Please be prompt. If tardies become a problem it could affect your grade. Let me know in advance whenever possible.
- 6. Lockers are available in the P.E. locker room. Please bring your own lock if you wish to secure your things.
- 7. A positive attitude is always encouraged enjoy and have fun!