Course Description, Objectives & Outcomes:

This course is specifically designed to guide students in selecting a college major leading to a career path. It encompasses self-assessments, career exploration (career research), decision-making and goal-setting skills, and success strategies. ADVISORIES: Eligibility for English 1A recommended. (A, CSU)

In the process of completing this course, students will:

- Acquire strategies for seeking information about academic majors and careers
- Connect interests, abilities, personality type and values to academic majors and career pathways
- develop decision-making skills encompassing short- and long-term career goals, and a Comprehensive Student Education Plan (SEPC)
- Identify personal interests, abilities, personality type and values
- Implement real-world career exploration and social network structures, including informational interviewing, networking, and job shadowing
- Learn strategies for self-assessment in relationship to choosing an academic major or career
- Research career pathways utilizing the latest technology resources gathering information including job duties, job requirements/education, salary ranges and job outlook

After successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Analyze their specific personality traits, interests and values as they pertain to careers
- Evaluate career options and select a major to reach a self-determined career for a Comprehensive Student Education Plan (SEPC) completed with a State Center Community College District counselor
- Investigate careers based on their self-assessment findings through a career research project

Requirements:

Students will be evaluated on their performance in the areas of participation, course assignments and projects, discussion board, quizzes, and a final (portfolio).

Syllabus: Counseling 34 – Career Awareness, FALL 2021

Participation/Attendance:

- As an on-line course, you are responsible for logging-in to your CANVAS account often to obtain course materials to include any announcements, lectures, assignments, and/or schedule changes.
- If you do not complete the Discussion #1: Who are you? by the deadline, you will be counted as a “no show” and will be dropped by the instructor.
- If you have not completed 50% of the assignment in the first two weeks of class, you will be dropped from the course (3 out of 6 assignments in this course by end of module 2).
- Active, on-topic discussion is encouraged online. Your views, opinions, and comments are important to the facilitation of this course. Participation includes thoughtful advance readings of the assignments, contributions to good class dynamics, and participation during online class discussion and activities.
- Discussion Board (Canvas): You will be expected to post and respond on a weekly basis within your success team through the Canvas discussion board online. Questions and/or Case Studies will be presented each week (on Mondays) starting the first week of the class. You will need to post your response BY WED and then respond to at least 1 team member on the discussion board BY SUN. You will receive 15 points (each discussion) for posting and responding (if you only post your response, then you will earn 7.5 points)
 - Attendance will be taken through Discussion board participation; however, points are not given for attendance so this does not factor into your final grade

Course Assignments:

Class activities/homework assignments will be required in this course. These activities are designed to be completed individually or in small groups online. Current assignments include:

Points to Ponder:

- Please read Reedley College’s position on academic dishonesty carefully. Academic dishonesty (Cheating) and disruptive behavior in any form will not be tolerated in this class and will be dealt with according to the College’s procedures. Cheating will result in a zero for that exam or assignment. Disruptive behavior may result in removal from the class. Please visit link below for student handbook:
 - Visit link: <https://www.reedleycollege.edu/about/about-us/policies-and-procedures/student%20conduct%20standards.html>
- Please be familiar with Reedley College position on plagiarism as outlined in the Student Conduct Standards and Grievance Procedures available at link above. Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty in which you take someone else’s ideas and represent them as your own. Plagiarism will result in a zero for that assignment.
- Student Support Services: If at any time you find you are having trouble succeeding in this course, whether because of a change in your life circumstances or because of something you don’t understand about the materials, please see the instructor. There are a number of services available to assist Reedley College students in succeeding in their coursework such as the Tutorial Center, Psychological Services, Counseling (Academic), Disability Services, EOPS, CALWorks, and etc.
- Retaining Returned Assignments: Students disagreeing with the assigned final grade will be required to supply evidence to the contrary. Therefore, it is strongly suggested that students retain all returned/graded assignments and tests until after final grades have been posted. Also, check Canvas for your grades on a regular basis, so we can resolve any problem as soon as you become aware of it.
- Finally, this is a learning environment for us all. Please respect the opinions and views of your fellow classmates.
