EXAMS 1-3 & A COMPREHENSIVE MAKE-UP

There are three exams throughout the semester, each exam is worth twenty percent of your grade. If you do poorly or miss an exam you have the ability to take a comprehensive make-up exam after your final exam, to replace your lowest exam grade. Taking the comprehensive make-up exam can only help your grade. Exams cannot be made up.

If you earn a “D” or an “F” on the first exam (or a grade lower than you expected or wanted), I will expect an email from you within two weeks to arrange a meeting. Bring your all your study materials with you so that we can attempt to solve any problems before the second exam. If you do not see me about your exam, I will understand this to mean that you are satisfied with your grade.

Exam #1: Exam 1 covers readings, lectures, and any class activities associated with Chapters 1-3, and 5. This exam will consist of multiple choice questions and a short answer/essay question section.

Exam #2: Exam 2 will cover reading, lecture, and any class activities related to Chapters 6-8, and 10. This exam will consist of multiple choice, true/false, primate classification, and essay questions.

Exam 3 (Final Exam): will cover reading, lecture, and associated class activities related to Chapters 9, 4, 11, 14, and 17. The exam will consist of a variety of question types such as multiple choice, true/false, matching, and short answer written response questions.

Comprehensive Make-Up: If you miss Exam 1 or 2, or need to make up a poor score on one of these exams, you may take the comprehensive make-up exam on the final exam day after you complete Exam 3. The comprehensive make-up cannot hurt your grade but it can help you! Further information about this comprehensive make-up will be provided in class.

QUIZZES

General chapter quizzes will be on Canvas to be taken during the week that we are covering that chapter. You can only take these quizzes once and once you start the quiz you have 30 minutes to finish and submit the quiz. Canvas chapter quizzes are due before class the day a new chapter is started. I reserve the right to give quizzes at random. All quizzes can consist of multiple choice, matching, fill in the blank, and/or short answer questions.

ASSIGNMENTS

At the end of each textbook chapter you are required to answer review questions. Individual due dates can be found in your course schedule. These questions should be completely and correctly answered with details and reasoning stated for your answers.

Throughout the semester you will complete several assignments focused on various topics. Details and directions will vary between projects and you will receive instructions for each project throughout the semester.

DISCUSSIONS

Each week, except exam weeks, you will have small group discussion topic. Responses to the prompt are due before midnight on Wednesday (6points) and at least two responses to group members' posts are due before midnight on Sunday (2points each). Because of the group nature of discussions late work will rarely be accepted.

LATE WORK POLICY

Late work will can be submitted for reviews and quizzes up until the date of their exam. Do to the group nature of discussions late work will rarely be accepted. If a longer extension is needed for late work this will be handled on a case by case bases.
