Fall 2022 / Section: 53392 / 5 Units / Instructor: Franchesca Amezola

COURSE OVERVIEW

This is a first-semester course in Spanish for bilingual or monolingual native speakers designed to develop reading and writing skills. Students will expand their vocabulary, improve their orthography and their use of grammatical structures of standard Spanish, both oral and written. Readings and discussions of topics relating to Hispanic cultures are an essential part of the course. PREREQUISITES: a basic speaking knowledge of Spanish as determined by an oral interview. ADVISORIES: English 1A or 1AH.

What You Will Learn: Student Learning Outcomes

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the student should be prepared to:

- Recognize and comprehend Spanish spoken by native speakers of the language at the low intermediate level.
- Produce accurate and clear language that demonstrates standard usage of vocabulary, grammar and idioms of native speakers.
- Paraphrase or summarize to demonstrate comprehension of a variety of written works, such as short stories, poetry, novels, magazines, newspapers, and multi-media materials.
- Construct and compose paragraphs and/or short essays in standard Spanish that express ideas in a coherent and logical manner, by applying the correct usage of grammatical structures, vocabulary and idioms used by native speakers.
- Identify and distinguish differences and similarities between Hispanic cultures and demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of these cultures and their products.

Computer Readiness

- To be successful in this course, you need to have basic computer skills: know how to access email, download/upload files, download software programs, and navigate the Internet with ease, working with more than one web page/tab open at a time. More importantly, you should be able to search for solutions or contact the help desk if technical difficulties arise.
- This course requires that you watch videos, listen to recordings, record videos of yourself speaking in Spanish, and interact with other students, and me, using synchronous (real time) software. Your computer should: be no more than 6 years old, have an updated operating system, and have a web browser that is compatible with Canvas.

Required Materials

- Computer (desktop or laptop – preferred method), iPad or smartphones could work as well, for most exercises.
- Webcam, microphone, and speakers or earphones/pods

- You may purchase the materials at the college bookstore OR for a discounted price at Amazon, where the price will be $16.50 (Paperback -LINK) or $9.99 (Kindle Edition-LINK), before taxes and shipping. If you buy the paperback through the campus bookstore, it will be $22.00.

Grading and Evaluation

This course is not self-paced. All assignments, discussions, oral activities, quizzes, etc. are to be completed no later than 11:59pm PST/PDT on the date indicated.

Amount of Work

This is a 5-unit course, and the workload reflects that. For every unit, about three hours of work are required. You will be reviewing grammar tutorials and completing various activities online to reinforce what you are learning. You will also spend time completing compositions, discussions, modules quizzes, and preparing for oral presentations, the final exam, etc. This will require on average about 15 hours a week. Depending on your computer skills and understanding of the materials, the amount of time spent on the class may vary, as you become acquainted with the information and the online procedures.

Course Management

Canvas will be the main way of contact between us. Make sure you have continuous access to it.

- In the “Week 1 - ¡Bienvenidos! START HERE” module, you will find your first assignments, which include a Video Presentation Assignment and a Syllabus Quiz.
- You will find our entire course organized into Módulos that follow the Course Calendar. Each Módulo will have detailed information about the Module’s learning objectives, instructor notes about the material, links to tutorials and activities, and instructions for all assignments. Always login to Canvas first and look through your homepage for weekly updates.

Tareas & Quia Activities

- Most of the Module Activities (Tareas) required in this course will be completed using the materials from Español para hablantes de herencia, and with the help of the free website: Quia.

You will be assigned weekly activities such as readings, vocabulary, grammar, translation, research, essays, and (free access) Quia exercises. All assignments will be either completed directly on Canvas or uploaded by the assigned date. All instructions and due dates will be posted well in advance.

Exams, Discussion Boards, and Compositions

- Module Exams: Exams will be completed on Canvas after the end of each module (about every three weeks—check Full Course General Schedule on Modules/Week 1). These exams will be timed (45 mins-1 hour) with one attempt only. Late submissions will not be accepted.
- Discussion Boards: Every week, students must post a response to the Weekly Discussion Board (Foros de discusión) and then respond to the posts of two classmates. An initial post is due by Wednesday at Midnight, and responses to two classmates are due by Sunday, Midnight. Look for ways to connect with your classmates. A quality post is one that moves the discussion forward in which conversation goes back and forth. One-liners do not constitute a quality post. Specific details will be given in each discussion board as well as the rubric to be used. Some oral discussion board responses will be completed and posted using Flipgrid. Detailed instructions will be given with plenty of notice. Late submissions will not be accepted.
- Compositions: There will be written compositions assigned throughout the course. They will help improve your writing skills in Spanish. You will have the opportunity to submit your essays to receive feedback and improve them, before being given a final grade. More details will be provided in Canvas. Late submissions will not be accepted.
- Final Written Exam: The Final Exam will be scheduled online well in advance. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Oral Assessment

- Oral presentations: Your oral proficiency will be assessed in the form of oral presentations. You will be assigned an oral presentation (15% of grade) to be posted on Canvas. In addition, you will also be posting your Introductions Video and some oral discussion boards using the free video discussion experience Flipgrid. Topics and more specific details and requirements will be posted on Canvas well in advance.

Overall Engagement

- In order to be successful in this class, it is essential for you to engage actively in all the class activities.
- This is a “student-centered” class. Active engagement involves completing all online activities on time, using Spanish AT ALL TIMES, participating appropriately in discussion boards, treating all classmates with respect, asking questions as needed, and maintaining a positive and cooperative spirit throughout the course.
- Your class engagement will be assessed at the end of each MODULE by checking to see that you completed the online class activities assigned on Canvas and Quia and discussion posts. Be advised that, on Canvas and Quia, I can see when you log on, what work was completed/viewed, and how long it took you to complete it.

- Subscribe to the Cyber Café Discussion Thread and ask or answer questions on there about the material we cover in class. I will be moderating this discussion thread and will provide guidance and answers when needed. If you have a personal question, contact me via Canvas Inbox.

Drop and Attendance Policy

During the first week of class, you must complete the assignments on Canvas (Introductions Video and Syllabus Quiz) by the due date, or you will be dropped from the class. In an online class, attendance means that you regularly engage in course activities. Most of the work in this class will be completed on Canvas and Quia. If you don't engage in the course work for more than a week, you will be considered absent and will be dropped from class. Please communicate with me if you have concerns about your attendance.

Late Work Policy

You will know the due dates of assignments and exams for this class well in advance. All work, however, must be completed on time. Extra work or makeup work will not affect your grade. No late Quizzes, Compositions/Discussion Boards or Final Exam accepted. For Quia Activities only you have a one-day grace period. You may submit those assignments one day late, but will receive a 10% deduction on those grades. After that date, grades will be entered on Canvas. No exceptions. Please do not ask. If you have an emergency, contact me before the due date. Examples of emergencies constitute a car accident, a heart attack or being ill with Covid-19 (Documentation will be required). A planned vacation or a birthday party do not fall into an emergency category.

In Need of a Tutor?

You may always talk to me during office hours, but you can also work with a tutor from the Learning Center. Watch this video on information about online tutoring. This is the Tutor Matching Service that connects you with online tutors. Check it out! We are here to help you.

Disabilities

If you have special needs as addressed by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or need course materials in alternate formats, notify me immediately. We have Disabled Student Programs and Services on campus. Reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate your special needs.

Netiquette

Online etiquette is extremely important. We must show respect to one another at all times. Rudeness and disrespect will not be tolerated in this course. Please recognize that communication is rather "flat" online where we cannot see and hear each other. So be cautious when using sarcasm or negative statements. Familiarize yourself with "smileys," online icons that show emotion, so that you lessen the risk of offending the person you are trying to communicate with. Whenever possible, give constructive criticism and treat others the way you would like to be treated. Click HERE for more information about netiquette.

General Notes on Assignments and Academic Honesty

- This class will be conducted in Spanish and you are expected to read, write, and comment in Spanish AT ALL TIMES. The goal of the class is to improve your reading and writing skills en español.
- Accented Characters: Make sure to use accents marks when needed, as they constitute an important part of the language. You will find them available within the Quia exercises. Profesora Amezola will also provide instructions on how to include them on other assignments.
- Original Work: The assignments represent opportunities for you as a student of Spanish to demonstrate your acquired knowledge of the material we have covered. Your work should be wholly original, and only your instructor should provide feedback and corrections on it. While you will be required to read outside research, you are to write your work using your own language. In some cases, if appropriate, you will be asked to redo the assignment. Academic dishonesty also includes cheating or using unauthorized devices during quizzes, exams or the preparation of writing projects. Egregious cases will be forwarded for disciplinary action. Penalties for academic dishonesty range from an “F” on an assignment to dismissal from the course and/ or the college.

Equity Is Important

Outside of instructional requirements, there are two key goals for me with this class. My first goal is to celebrate the diverse nature of our college and community. I will do my best to present materials and activities that are respectful and celebratory of this diversity including: gender identify, sexual orientation, ability, age, socioeconomic status, residence status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, linguistic background, and culture.

My second goal is that all students feel welcome, have their needs met, and feel respected both in and outside of this class. I will work to create a classroom atmosphere of trust and safety to meet this goal. But I will need your help in this work. It is critical that each of us show respect for all worldviews expressed in class whether it be by a classmate or via class materials, even and especially when we may not agree or may not feel comfortable with those views. Please let me know if something is said or done in or out of the classroom, by myself or other students, that is troubling or causes discomfort or offense. We should never ignore these situations and in some cases, we can use these situations as a learning experience. If you’re not comfortable talking with me directly, please feel free to email or message me through Canvas or contact your counselor or another trusted faculty member to help with the conversation.

Please remember that this does not mean that this is a safe place for hate speech, racism, prejudice, stereotyping, sexism, ablism, ageism, or other comments/actions that intentionally hurt people. These comments will not be tolerated and may be reported.
