Course Materials:

Schmallager, Frank Criminal Justice Today, 15th Edition. Pearson Publishing

Course Description:

This course introduces students to the history and philosophy of the United States criminal justice system. It also analyzes theories of crime and crime causation in conjunction with how law is developed. Additionally, the course examines sentencing and incarceration processes.

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the semester it is expected that the student will:

1. Recognize the major components of the criminal justice system.
2. Describe the differences between Federal and State courts.
3. Identify the major theories which attempt to explain crime causation.
4. Explain the processes by which a criminal case progresses from investigation to appeal.
5. Recognize which Amendments to the United States Constitution have the greatest impact on the criminal justice system.

Learning Objectives:

In the process of completing this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the history, development, structure, and function of the American police, courts, and corrections systems.
2. Explain the methods, theories, and concepts associated with the sources of crime data, the emerging patterns of criminal activity, and the costs of crime.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of criminological theories used to explain crime and criminality.
4. Demonstrate the ability to follow appropriate writing styles practiced within the social sciences arena while gathering and organizing the material required for a case brief or other selected written project.
5. Show an understanding of corrections including the roles of probation, parole, and community corrections, as well as the functions of prisons and jails.
6. Convey an understanding of the process of adjudication.
7. Identify and describe special issues in the criminal justice system involving juvenile delinquency.

Attendance and Tardiness:

Frequent tardiness is disrespectful and a disruption to the class. Therefore, to reduce interruptions, every two (2) tardies will be counted as one (1) absence.

While attendance is not weighed in the final grade equation, it is an important component for those students who have an interest in learning. Being present in class enables the students to participate academically in class discussions, gain exposure to new found knowledge, and greatly improve the likelihood of performing more successfully on course assignments and examinations.

Within the first nine weeks of the course, students who miss a total of six (6) classes will be dropped.

If you are late to any test, including the final exam, your score will be dropped one grade.

Classroom standards:

- Class participation
 - Cell phone use
 - Respect for fellow students
 - Absenteeism and tardiness
 - Save all your work and monitor your grades
- Extra credit

Method of grading:

The final semester grade will depend upon the accumulation of points during the semester. The points will be a result of credit received on assignments, tests and final examination. The instructor reserves the right to adjust scores as it may be required throughout the semester.

90% and above = A
80% and above = B
70% and above = C
60% and above = D
59% and below = F

Test material is constructed from class discussions, assigned readings, guest lectures, video presentations, and special assignments. Tests will consist of true/false and multiple choice questions. Unless the student receives prior approval from the instructor, no make-up tests will be allowed.

Homework Policy:

To receive full credit for homework assignments must meet the following criteria:

1. Typed in 12 point font, double spaced (handwritten work will not be accepted), multiple pages must be stapled.
2. Formatted as follows: Name, Date, Course number, Homework number and no spacing in the heading. Sources will be cited in the footer of the document (even if the source is a personal opinion).
3. Turned in no later than the beginning of class on the date it is due. (HOMEWORK TURNED IN ANY LATER WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED)
4. Demonstrate critical analysis.

Responsibility to keep copies:

It is a good practice to keep copies of ALL assignments and tests. On rare occasions, work may be lost because of computer failure or other mishaps.

Final examination:

The final examination is comprehensive. It is based upon class discussions, assigned readings, guest lectures, video presentations, and special assignments.

The date of the final for this class is Friday, May 26, 2023. Students are expected to attend the day and hour of their scheduled finals. There will be no make-ups after the final has been given at the set time.

Holidays:

January 16th, Martin Luther King Jr., February 13th, Lincoln's Birthday, February 20st, Presidents Day, April 3rd-10th, Spring Break, May 29th, Memorial Day.

Drop Date:

Friday February 1, 2023

Important School Policies:

Please refer to your school catalog schedule for complete details, however some of these policies include:

- ❖ Cheating and Plagiarism
- ❖ Drug/Alcohol free campus
- ❖ Sexual harassment
- ❖ Student conduct

Each student is expected to assist in the overall environment of the classroom making it conducive to learning.

"If you have a verified need for an academic accommodation or materials in alternate media (i.e.: Braille, large print, electronic text, etc.) per the Americans with Disabilities Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation act please contact your instructor as soon as possible".

FAQs:

1. Do you accept late homework? When is the final exam? How many classes can I miss before I am dropped?

I will not answer any questions that are answered in the syllabus.

2. Can I use an old edition of the textbook?

Although I understand the expense incurred for textbooks, I cannot allow old editions of the text to be used.

3. I had to work all night, so I wasn't able to come to class. Can I have an excused absence?

I do not recognize excused absences. You are allowed an allotted amount, so use them wisely.

4. I cannot buy the textbook, so can I turn in my homework late and still get full credit?

There is a copy on reserve in the library and I do not accept late homework in Crim 1.

5. Can I email you?

It is easier to reach me by email. However, you must include in the email what course you are in, or I will return the email unanswered.

6. Can I email you my homework?

With prior approval only! I teach several classes with nearly 40 students in each class. That much email will overload my account. If I do allow you to email your homework, in cases of emergency only, it must be written on a Word Document and sent as an attachment.

7. I am taking the course with a friend or a relative; can we do the homework together and turn in the same answers?

I encourage you to share ideas, but the answers have to be in your own words. By that I do not mean changing a few words and calling it your own. Review the definition of plagiarism.

8. What if there is a dispute about a homework or test score? For example, I am sure I turned in a homework assignment, but I did not get credit for it.

I cannot emphasize enough about the importance of saving your work. Please don't rely on me to be perfect. I will make every effort to be accurate.

9. I have a plane ticket to fly home before the final. Can I arrange to take the final at a time other than when it is scheduled?

No. The final date is written in stone. If there is an extreme case, then speak with me about it.

10. The class I have before this one is across campus, I have to be late sometimes. Will they be excused?

You must take issues like this into consideration before you register for classes. There are no excused absences, so the answer is no.

11. It's near the end of the semester and you ask, "Can I do something for extra credit, I'm not doing well in the class?"

I am here to help, but you have take responsibility. I offer extra credit so don't wait until the last minute. You are allowed no more than 20 points of extra credit for the class (if you meet the minimum qualifications to do be allowed to turn any in). Any extra credit project must first be approved by me. If you wait until the last minute, I will not approve any.
