Guest Speaker: Dayatra A. Latin

Dayatra currently is the Director of Programs and Development with Community Food Bank (CFB) in Fresno. She has been with CFB over eight years and like most in the non-profit arena wears multiple hats. She is extremely passionate about the mission of CFB to end hunger in the Central Valley and counts it a blessing to provide clients with such a basic need; food. Within the community she is a frequent keynote speaker dealing with organizational development, motivating and inspiring individual, group and community change. She is a dedicated and proud mom to three fantastic kids; you can often find her cheering her kids on at football games, track meets, choral performances and much more.
